On Sunday, December 4, 2016, The Montgomery County Office of Human Rights (OHR) will host its eighth biennial Human Rights Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony at the BlackRock Center for the Arts in Germantown, Maryland. The Human Rights Hall of Fame mission is to honor individuals who have made great personal sacrifices in contributing to human and civil rights in Montgomery County, either as trailblazers of the past or as current light bearers in the struggle. This year's theme is "Advancing New Strategies for Human & Civil Rights".

Selection criteria for Hall of Fame members, living or deceased should include examples of visionary leadership, notable achievements, and efforts to diminish the effects of discrimination and advancing human rights.

To nominate an individual for the Hall of Fame, submit a typed narrative, not to exceed two pages, which documents your nominee's achievement(s), accomplishment(s) and contribution(s) to human and civil rights in Montgomery County.

The narrative must include how nominee's attributes advance this year's theme. Hall of Fame inductees, nominated by the community and selected by a panel of current Human Rights Hall of Fame members, may not include current staff members of the Montgomery County Office of Human Rights.
