Federal Transit Administration (FTA) – U. S. Department of Transportation

The FTA provides financial and technical assistance to local public transit systems, including buses, subways, light rail, commuter rail, trolleys and ferries. If you believe you have been discriminated against by a public transit provider, you may file an administrative complaint with the FTA Office of Civil Rights. File a complaint by completing the FTA complaint form: www.transit.dot.gov/regulations-and-guidance/civil-rights-ada/fta-civil-rights-complaint-form. The complaint form should be emailed to FTACivilRightsCommunications@dot.gov with "FTA complaint form" included in the subject line. Alternatively, complaints may be mailed to: Federal Transit Administration, Office of Civil Rights, Attention: Complaint Team, East Building, 5th Floor – TCR, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE, Washington, DC 20590. Please note: Individuals are encouraged to first file a complaint directly with their transit provider. The FTA does not represent individual complainants. FTA will analyze allegations for possible deficiencies by the transit provider and will work with the transit provider to correct the deficiencies within a predetermined timeframe. For Montgomery County Government public transportation, the ADA Compliance Manager takes complaints: www.montgomerycountymd.gov/dgs-ada/home.html.

Metro ADA Ombudsman Program for Customers with Disabilities - WMATA

The Ombudsman helps individuals understand their rights and responsibilities as well as their options, makes inquiries on an individual's behalf and obtain responses to his/her questions, helps present an individual's complaint to the parties responsible for resolution, mediates between an individual and other parties to a conflict to bring about a mutually agreeable outcome, and recommends changes in policies, procedures, and practices to prevent similar problems from occurring. If you have a complaint about an accessibility issue within the Metrobus, Metrorail or MetroAccess system, use the online customer comment form to send feedback: <http://wmata.custhelp.com/app/home/>. If you can document that you have tried to resolve your concerns and complaints related to accessibility issues within the Metrobus, Metrorail or MetroAccess services through the Metro complaint process and have not met with a satisfactory resolution, you may contact the Metro ADA Ombudsman Program for Customers with Disabilities. Written complaints can be sent to Office of ADA Policy and Planning, Metro Ombudsman Program for Customers with Disabilities, 600 5th Street NW, Washington, DC 20001.
