Leggett Seeks Applicants for Housing Opportunities Commission

County Executive Isiah Leggett is seeking applicants to fill two vacancies on Montgomery County's Housing Opportunities Commission. The incumbents are eligible to apply for reappointment.

The seven-member commission is responsible for building, managing and financing housing for low and moderate income people. Members serve five year terms without compensation.

Commissioners are required to file annual confidential financial disclosure statements. Meetings are usually held the first Wednesday evening of each month in Kensington. Additional meetings are scheduled as needed. Members are required to attend at least 75 percent of the scheduled meetings. Appointed members are required to be sworn in by the Clerk of the Circuit Court before their first meeting.

Applicants of diverse backgrounds, professions, gender, geography, disability and ethnicity are encouraged to apply, and should write by June 12 to County Executive Isiah Leggett at the Executive Office Building, 101 Monroe Street, Rockville, MD 20850 or send an e-mail to countyexecutive.boards@montgomerycountymd.gov. A brief resume with work and home telephone numbers should be enclosed.

Members of County boards, committees and commissions may not serve on more than one such group at a time. Members of this Commission are eligible for reimbursement for travel and dependent care for meetings attended. Leggett's appointments are subject to confirmation by the County Council. Applications of those selected for appointment are made public as part of the confirmation process.
