Dependent's Educational Assistance provides education and training opportunities to eligible dependents of certain veterans. The program offers up to 45 months of education benefits. These benefits may be used for degree and certificate programs, apprenticeship, and on-the-job training. If you are a spouse, you may take a correspondence course. If you are a son or daughter and wish to receive benefits for attending school or job training, you must be between the ages of 18 and 26. If you are a spouse, benefits end 10 years from the date VA finds you eligible or from the date of death of the veteran.

Eligibility requirements - You must be the son, daughter, or spouse of:

- A veteran who died or is permanently and totally disabled as the result of a service-connected disability. The disability must arise out of active service in the Armed Forces.
- A veteran who died from any cause while such permanent and total service-connected disability was in existence.
- A servicemember missing in action or captured in line of duty by a hostile force.
- A servicemember forcibly detained or interned in line of duty by a foreign government or power.
- A servicemember who is hospitalized or receiving outpatient treatment for a service connected permanent and total disability and is likely to be discharged for that disability.

Obtain and complete VA Form 22-5490, Application for Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance. Send it to the VA Eastern Regional Office listed above. If you are a son or daughter, under legal age, a parent or guardian must sign the application. For more information, please read the Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance Program \(Pamphlet\).
