Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Department of Veterans Affairs (CHAMPVA)

P.O. Box 500
Spring City, PA 19475

Hours: 8 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. EST

www.va.gov/family-and-caregiver-benefits/health-and-disability/champva/

To be eligible for CHAMPVA, you cannot be eligible for TRICARE, and you must be in one of these categories:

- The spouse or child of a veteran who has been rated permanently and totally disabled for a service-connected disability by a VA regional office.
- The surviving spouse or dependent child of a veteran who died from a VA-rated service-connected disability.
- The surviving spouse or dependent child of a veteran who was at the time death rated permanently and totally disabled from a service-connected disability.
- The surviving spouse or child of a military member who died in the line of duty, not due to misconduct (in most of these cases, these family members are eligible for TRICARE, not CHAMPVA).

Note: In certain cases, you may be eligible for CHAMPVA if you're the surviving spouse or dependent child of a service member who died in the line of duty, not due to misconduct. But you can't get CHAMPVA benefits if you qualify for TRICARE. A "permanent and total disability" is a disability that we've rated as 100% disabling and that's not expected to improve.

Medicare: If you're eligible for Medicare, you must have Medicare Part A and Part B in order to get or keep CHAMPVA benefits. A Medicare Advantage plan (also called Part C) also meets this requirement.

www.va.gov/family-and-caregiver-benefits/education-and-careers/dependents-education-assistance/

Dependent's Educational Assistance provides education and training opportunities to eligible dependents of certain veterans. The program offers up to 45 months of education benefits. These benefits may be used for degree and certificate programs, apprenticeship, and on-the-job training. If you are a spouse, you may take a correspondence course. If you are a child and wish to receive benefits for attending school or job training, you must be between the ages of 18 and 26. If you are a spouse, benefits end 10 years from the date VA finds you eligible or from the date of death of the veteran.

Eligibility requirements: You must be the child or spouse of:

- A veteran who died or is permanently and totally disabled as the result of a service-connected disability. The disability must arise out of active service in the Armed Forces.
- A veteran who died from any cause while such permanent and total service-connected disability was in existence.
- A servicemember missing in action or captured in line of duty by a hostile force.
- A servicemember forcibly detained or interned in line of duty by a foreign government or power.
- A servicemember who is hospitalized or receiving outpatient treatment for a service-connected permanent and total disability and is likely to be discharged for that disability.

Obtain and complete VA Form 22-5490, Application for Survivors' and Dependents' Educational Assistance. Send it to the Regional Processing Center listed above.

You may be able to get a certificate of eligibility if you're the spouse of a veteran, and at least one of these descriptions is true for them. At least one of these must be true:

- The veteran is missing in action, or
- The veteran is a prisoner of war (POW), or
- The veteran died while in service or from a service-connected disability and you didn't remarry, or
- The veteran died while in service or from a service-connected disability and you didn't remarry before you were 57 years old or before December 16, 2003, or
- The veteran had been totally disabled and then died, but their disability may not have been the cause of death (in certain situations)

Note: A surviving spouse who remarried before December 16, 2003, and on or after their 57th birthday, must have applied no later than December 15, 2004, to establish home loan eligibility. We'll have to deny applications we received after December 15, 2004, from surviving spouses who remarried before December 16, 2003. You will need to complete VA Form 26-1817 - Request for Determination of Loan Guaranty Eligibility - Unmarried Surviving Spouse.
