

THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY COMMUNITY ACTION AGENCY provides direct services and administers partnerships that reduce poverty and promote low-income families' self-sufficiency. Community Action funding comes from federal and state grants and County government. Contracts monitored by Community Action receive funding from the federal Administration of Children & Families, Office of Head Start, HHS; the Maryland State Department of Education; and the Montgomery County Executive and County Council Community Grants programs.

Support for TESS & VITA services and contract monitoring is supported by the County's Community Services Block Grant via the Maryland Department of Housing and Community Development. Funding is also provided by the Montgomery County Department of Health and Human Services, and Montgomery County Public Schools.

THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY COMMUNITY ACTION BOARD (CAB), the County's federally designated antipoverty group, advises the County about poverty and the needs of low-income people. CAB provides oversight for the agency's federal grants and the agency's services.

Services & Community Partners

The Montgomery County Community Action Agency seeks to reduce poverty and improve the self-sufficiency of low-income residents.

Community Action manages federal, state and County Head Start funding and the Community Services Block Grant. We partner to provide comprehensive early childhood services through Head Start, deliver social services at the Takoma-East Silver Spring Community Action Center (TESS), and increase asset development through the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) partnership. Throughout the County, nonprofits with contracts monitored by Community Action staff deliver emergency food, clothing, and social services; legal assistance; employment training; and education and facilitate community engagement among Montgomery County's diverse low-income community members, including residents with Limited English Proficiency.

At A Glance
