Mr. Ruehlen, Mr. Biase and Ms. McInturff,

Mr. Ruhlen is correct that the OZAH Rule 3.5 requires a prehearing statement be filed on behalf of a party in opposition that is either represented by counsel or part of an organized group. Yesterday, was the first OZAH learned that Mr. Lyles the adjoining neighbor was represented by counsel. In light of the fact that the hearing is scheduled for this Monday, March 18, I am via this email granting the alternative Motion for Continuance as submitted by Mr. Ruehlen and Mr. Biase.

OZAH has a very tight schedule in April and to allow sufficient time for the opposition's prehearing and the parties to adequately prepare, the next dates available to schedule this hearing are Thursday, May 2nd or Friday May 3rd.

Please respond as soon as possible regarding these new dates.
