

BIOGRAPHIC SUMMARY
MATTHEW B. BOGIN, ESQ.
First Floor
77 South Washington Street
Rockville, MD 20850

EDUCATION:

B.S. in economics Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania (1972)
J.D. Georgetown University Law Center (1975)
LL.M. in tax (with distinction) Georgetown University Law Center (1993)

EXPERIENCE:

2000-Sole Practice. Representing families with disabled children on comprehensive estate planning in order to protect eligibility for governmental benefits. Representing parents of disabled children in obtaining guardianship. Representing families and small business owners in planning, developing and implementing inter-generational wealth transfer programs including the use of intentionally defective grantor trust, dynasty trust, irrevocable life insurance trusts, wills, and revocable trusts. Counseling the same clients on asset protection methods and co-ordinating asset protection planning with estate planning. As an adjunct to the above forming and representing family limited partnership, LLC's and S Corporations as well as probate estates and advise on administration of estates.

1999-2000-Grossberg, Yochelson, Fox & Beyda, LLP member. Supervised estate planning practice.

1975-1999 Bogin and Eig, PC (and predecessor firm) represented thousands of families of children with disabilities throughout the Eastern United States; litigated many reported cases under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act. Also represented small businesses and developed estate plans for many families with disabled children as well as probating estates.

1980-85 American Bar Association National Legal Resource Center for Child Advocacy and Protection developed and implemented national training program for attorneys who represented learning disabled children.

1987 Lecturer in the Law, University of Virginia Law School.

PUBLICATIONS:

"Group Homes for Person with Handicaps: Recent Developments in the Law," 5 West. N.E.L. Rev. 423 (1983).

Representing Learning Disabled Children: A Manual for Attorneys (1st and 2nd editions 1985 and 1986).

BAR ACTIVITIES:

Member, D.C. Bar Lawyer Practice Management Committee

Fellow, Maryland Law Foundation

Steering Committee Member, DC Bar Section on Law Practice Management

Member American and Maryland State Bar Associations

Member, Academy of Special Needs Planners

Member, American Health Lawyers Association

Admitted in Maryland and District of Columbia