Worksession

MEMORANDUM

April 13, 2012

TO: Public Safety Committee

FROM: Amanda Mihill, Legislative Attorney A. Mihill

SUBJECT: Worksession: Bill 9-12, Commission on Juvenile Justice - Membership

Bill 9-12, Commission on Juvenile Justice - Membership, sponsored by the Council President at the request of the County Executive was introduced on March 6, 2012. A public hearing was held on March 27, in which a representative of the Executive testified in support of the bill (©9).

Bill 9-12 would add a representative of the Montgomery County Collaboration Council for Children, Youth and Families, a quasi-public, nonprofit organization designated as the County's Local Management Board, as a voting member of the Commission on Juvenile Justice. The Executive has requested this legislation because the Collaboration Council provides ongoing support to the Commission and plays an important role in both policy development and service delivery to the youth of Montgomery County.

Council staff recommendation: enact Bill 9-12.

MEMORANDUM

January 31, 2012

TO: Roger Berliner, President
County Council

FROM: Isiah Leggett, County Executive

SUBJECT: Legislation regarding the Commission on Juvenile Justice

I am submitting for the Council's consideration a bill to add a representative from the Collaboration Council for Children, Youth and Families to the Commission on Juvenile Justice. The bill offsets this additional member by reducing the number of general voting members from 23 to 22. As a result, the total number of voting members on the Commission remains unchanged

Since the creation of the Collaboration Council, the Commission has relied informally on Collaboration Council staff for research and statistical data, routine updates on the Detention Risk Assessment Instrument, expertise in policy matters, and support in preparing the Commission's budget. Given the Collaboration Council's ongoing support to the Commission and the key role the Council plays in both policy development and service delivery to the youth of Montgomery County, it is appropriate that the Collaboration Council have a voting member on the Commission on Juvenile Justice.

Thank you for your consideration of this legislation.

Testimony of Michael Subin
On Behalf Of
County Executive Isiah Leggett

Re: Bill 9-12, Commission on Juvenile Justice-Membership

March 27, 2012

President Berliner, Members of the Council:

I am Michael Subin, testifying today on behalf of County Executive Isiah Leggett in support of Bill 9-12, Commission on Juvenile Justice, Membership.

While the Bill does not add to the membership of the Commission, it changes the status of one voting member from that of a citizen-at-large to an agency member. That member would represent the Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC) coordinator of the Collaboration Council, the Local Management Board. The DMC coordinator is responsible for finding ways to decrease the proportion of minority youth who have contact with the juvenile justice system and are detained. It is also the responsibility of the DMC Coordinator to identify and address the overrepresentation of minority youth at key points in the juvenile justice system. Of particular concern are that all youth receive equal and fair treatment in the juvenile justice system; that all youth are provided alternatives to secure detention; and that all County youth have access to diversion services.

The DMC Coordinator also chairs the DMC Reduction Committee. That Committee works in conjunction with the Department of Juvenile Services, Commission on Juvenile Justice (CJJ), the Criminal Justice Coordinating Committee (CJCC), the Montgomery County Police Department, and various service providers to ensure fair and just treatment for all youth, regardless of race or ethnicity.

In its close working relationship with the CJJ, the DMC Coordinator: provides the Commission with pertinent information and statistics necessary to its work; provides routine updates on the success of the Detention Risk Assessment Instrument (DRAI); and, does a great deal of research to provide the most needed services for Montgomery County juveniles. One example of the research provided by the DMC is its latest work aimed at the establishment of an Evening Reporting Center (ERC) in Montgomery County as a potential point of diversion. The CJJ has often supported the work of the Collaboration Council in their budget recommendations and has found the consistent flow of information to be helpful when writing its own budget recommendations.

The work of the DMC Coordinator is critical to the work of the CJJ and its ability to make recommendations to the State, the County Council, and the Executive. Passage of this bill will formalize a relationship that, while existing, should be formalized.

Finally, the Fiscal Impact Statement for this bill indicates that it will have no impact on revenues or expenditures.

Thank you for your attention to this bill.
