Montgomery County Council
Stella Werner Council Office Building
100 Maryland Avenue, 6th Floor
Rockville, Maryland 20850

Dear Councilmembers:

On behalf of the Montgomery County Charter Review Commission, I am pleased to submit the 2016 Report of the Commission.

The main item in our report is a recommendation to amend the Montgomery County Charter to provide the same procedures to fill any vacancy in the office of County Executive as currently exist for any vacancy in the office of County Council Member. This recommendation is a continuation of the initiative begun by the Montgomery County Council in January 2014 when you requested that the General Assembly delegation from our county request an amendment to the Maryland Constitution to permit charter counties to allow elections to fill vacancies in the office of County Executive. That effort was successful and the Commission is recommending that our Charter be amended at the election in November 2016, to be followed by Council and Executive action on legislation to complete the process.

The Commission has held meetings every month since the appointment of its members in June 2015 and held a public hearing on January 20, 2016. In addition, we have issued press releases about our work, posted messages about the Commission on Facebook, and I have spoken at meetings of all the Citizen Advisory Boards and other groups such as the Democratic and Republican Central Committees to encourage them to participate in examining the Charter to see if they have suggestions for the Commission.

The Commission has a number of issues that we have identified for further study, in addition to the one we are recommending for action by the Council. These issues are also identified in our report.

The Charter Review Commission appreciates the cooperation of the County Executive, County Councilmembers, and others, most especially the citizens of our county, in providing excellent suggestions to the Commission.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul M. Bessel, Chairperson
Charter Review Commission

I. INTRODUCTION

The Constitution of Maryland, Article XI-A, enables counties to adopt charters to establish local governments. County charters are, in effect, constitutions for county governments because they establish the duties and responsibilities for the different branches of government.

The voters of Montgomery County adopted a charter form of government in 1948. In subsequent general elections, voters adopted several amendments to the original Charter. The current Charter was adopted in 1968, with subsequent amendments.

Charter §509, adopted by amendment in 1976, requires the quadrennial appointment of an eleven-member, bipartisan Commission to study the Charter and make recommendations on potential Charter amendments. Commission members serve four-year terms, and no more than six of the eleven members may be from the same political party.

The Commission researches and evaluates Charter issues raised by the Executive, Councilmembers, other government officials, and the public. A report on the Commission's activities must be submitted to the Council no later than May 1 of every even-numbered year. The biennial report outlines the issues that the Commission considered and recommends Charter amendments to include on the general election ballot. By mid-August, the Council determines which Charter questions in addition to those raised by petition, will be placed on the ballot.

The current Commission was appointed in June of 2015, and focused its attention on one specific issue for the purposes of this report. During its term, the Commission met with then-Council President Leventhal, Council President Floreen, and extended invitations to meet with all other Councilmembers and the County Executive. The Commission held a public hearing on January 20, 2016. The Commission is making one recommendation to the Council, and expects to study several other possible Charter issues in the coming months, some of which are discussed in this report.

II. SUMMARY OF ISSUES CONSIDERED

Recommendation Requiring Charter Amendment

➤ Special Election to fill County Executive Vacancy

The Charter Review Commission recommends to the County Council that it include on the ballot for November 2016 a proposal to allow elections to fill vacancies in the office of County Executive, using the same language as is currently used to provide for elections to fill vacancies in the office of County Council Member. The Charter Review Commission would then recommend, assuming this ballot question is adopted, that the Council adopt legislation similar to that currently in the County Code to provide the details of when and how such elections will take place.

Issues for Future Consideration

In addition to studying the issue of filling a vacancy in the position of County Executive and making the above recommendation, members of the Commission have suggested other issue areas for future study. The Commission anticipates considering some or all of these issues over the next two years. A nonexclusive list of these potential areas of study, in order of their location in the Charter, not necessarily in order of priority, is below:

- the composition of Council districts, redistricting procedure, and compensation of Councilmembers, as provided in Charter Sections 103, 104, and 107, respectively;
- the prospect of term limits for Councilmembers and the County Executive. The Commission is aware of a petition drive proposing an amendment that would limit these officials to three terms.
- procedural matters related to capital improvements, supplementary appropriations, and special appropriations, as provided in Charter Sections 302, 307, and 308, respectively;

- the requirement of nine votes to increase the real property tax above any increase in the Consumer Price Index as provided in Section 305. The Commission received correspondence from residents, and heard from several individuals on this issue at its public hearing and its March meeting.
- issues related to transfers of funds, surplus, and indebtedness, as provided in Charter Section 309, 310, and 312, respectively;
- the collective bargaining provisions in Charter sections 510, 510A, and 511; and
- the possibility of new section providing for open meetings for all County boards, committees, and commissions;

III. ISSUE AREAS

RECOMMENDATION: METHOD FOR FILLING A COUNTY EXECUTIVE VACANCY

The Montgomery County Charter Review Commission recommends that the Montgomery County Charter be amended to allow for elections to fill vacancies in the office of County Executive.

The Charter currently allows the County to adopt legislation providing for elections to fill vacancies in the office of County Council Member, and this has been used in recent years. Whether through oversight or other reasons, no similar authority has been allowed in the past for similar vacancies in the office of County Executive. The Charter Review Commission recommends that the Charter be amended to allow the same authority concerning vacancies in the office of County Executive as is now allowed for similar vacancies in the office of County Executive.

It should be noted that this is the result of a process started in January 2014 when our County Council sent a letter to the State Senators and State Delegates from our county, urging them to propose an amendment of the Maryland Constitution to allow counties to have the authority to allow elections for vacancies in the office of County Executive. Our State Delegation did that, and the resulting proposed amendment was adopted by vote of the people in November 2014. Now it is up to our county to amend its charter, and then for the County Council to adopt appropriate legislation, to complete this process.

Background

On January 28, 2014, at the urging of now-Council President George Leventhal, all the members of the County Council signed a letter addressed to the 32 members of the County delegation to the Maryland General Assembly. They pointed out an anomaly in the State Constitution that allowed vacancies in the office of County Council Member to be filled by election but not vacancies in the office of County Executive.<sup>1</sup> They requested that this anomaly be fixed by the state legislature.<sup>2</sup> This anomaly may have resulted from a particular incident in one county in 1995 to fix a problem with County Council vacancies, where County Executive vacancies were not thought about at the same time.<sup>3</sup> (It should be noted that although the Montgomery County Council was correct in its

<sup>1</sup> The Montgomery County Code, Chapter 16, Article III, Section 16-17, states that “A vacancy on the Council that occurs before December 1 of the year before a year in which a quadrennial state election will be held must be filled by a special election as provided in this Section.” That section then provides details for how this will be done. Maryland Election Law, Section 8-401(a)(2) allows for filling vacancies in the County Council by election, but the County Charter, Section 205, provides that in the event of a vacancy in the office of Montgomery County Executive it will be filled by vote of the Council within forty-five days, and if they fail to do so, the Central Committee of the party to which the previous Executive belonged shall fill the vacancy. The Chief Administrative Officer of the County shall act as County Executive until the vacancy is filled.

<sup>3</sup> As stated in the Montgomery County Council press release referred to above, “The Constitution, the Express Powers Act, and the Elections Article were amended in 1996 to permit special elections to fill County Council vacancies, and to grant charter counties the power to provide for such elections. See Chapters 81 and 674, 1996 Laws of Maryland. These amendments were designed to supersede the Court of Appeals’ decision in Prince George’s County v. Bd of Supvrs of Elections of Prince George’s County, 337 Md. 496 (1995), which invalidated a Prince George’s County Charter amendment providing for special elections to fill interim vacancies on the County Council. In Prince George’s reading of the State Constitution as not permitting an election to fill vacancies in the office of County Executive, even before the voters approved an amendment to the State Constitution there were three Maryland counties that had provisions for election in case of County Executive vacancies in their charters. See below for details concerning this.)

As a result, House Bill 1415 was introduced in the 2014 session of the General Assembly, calling for an amendment to the Maryland Constitution to allow vacancies in the office of County Executive to be filled by elections, and to allow those elections to be held on dates other than usual election days and even by mail.<sup>4</sup> That bill passed, and the issue went to a vote of the people of Maryland on November 4, 2014. It received an overwhelming vote of support.<sup>5</sup> It became a part of the Maryland Constitution that deals with local legislation and elections.<sup>6</sup>

Thus, the Maryland Constitution now permits, but does not require, each of the eleven Maryland Charter counties to amend its Charter to permit elections to fill County Executive vacancies.<sup>7</sup> If Montgomery County wishes to do this, it has to amend its Charter and submit that amendment to a vote of the people. This can be done at the election on November 8, 2016.

County, the question related solely to vacancies on the County Council, not in the position of County Executive, and the subsequent amendments to the Constitution and Code provided only the authority for a charter county to conduct special elections to fill County Council vacancies.”

<sup>4</sup> House Bill 1415, Regular Legislative Session 2014. Introduced by Delegate Anne Kaiser and others. Passed in the State Senate on April 2, 2014, by a vote of 47 to 0, and in the House of Delegates on April 2, 2014, by a vote of 129 to 6, Chapter 261 of Laws of 2014.

<sup>6</sup> Maryland Constitution, Article XI-A, Section 3, 5-303 and 9-501, and Article XVII, Section 2.

<sup>7</sup> Although there are 11 Maryland counties with Charters, 2 do not have County Executives, so this provision only applies to the 9 Counties that have Charters that provide for County Executives.

How other Maryland counties fill vacancies in the office of County Executive

The charters of the nine Maryland counties that have County Executives provide a range of methods to fill vacancies in that office. The County Council fills this vacancy in Montgomery, Baltimore, Howard, and Wicomico. The Central Committee of the party to which the former County Executive belonged submits a name, which the Council must appoint, in Frederick and Cecil.

In three counties, it appears their charters provided for election to fill a County Executive vacancy in some cases even before this was permitted by the Maryland Constitutional amendment referred to above, but the timing is different in all three. An election to fill this vacancy is provided for in Prince George's County if the vacancy occurs in the first 2 years of the term. In Anne Arundel an election is provided for if the vacancy occurs in the first 12 months of the term. In Harford an election is provided for if the vacancy occurs more than 90 days before the next Congressional election. If these time limits are not met, the Council fills the vacancy, but in Prince George's it must fill the vacancy from among the Council Members.

How to Proceed Now

Assuming the Montgomery County Council still wishes to allow elections to fill vacancies in the office of County Executive, it can be accomplished as follows:

The County Council could propose an amendment to the County Charter that adds the same words to the section on County Executive vacancies that currently exist in the section on County Council Member vacancies. That would say, "Unless the Council has provided by law for filling a vacancy by special election, the following process for filling a vacancy shall apply.”<sup>8</sup>

The advantage of this option is that it would make the Charter section on filling County Executive vacancies exactly the same as that for filling County Council Member vacancies. Also, it would permit the Council to adopt and amend legislation to effectuate this provision without the need for further votes by the people to amend the County Charter.

In conclusion, the Commission recommends that the following changes to Charter Section 205 be submitted to the voters for ratification on the November 8 ballot:

Sec. 205. Vacancy.

A vacancy in the office of County Executive shall exist upon the death, resignation, disqualification, or removal of the County Executive. Unless the Council has provided by law for filling a vacancy by special election, the following process for filling a vacancy shall apply. [The] When a vacancy has occurred, the Council, by a vote of not less than five members, shall appoint a successor to fill the vacancy within forty-five days of the vacancy.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY, MARYLAND

Preamble

We, the people of Montgomery County, Maryland, a body corporate and politic, under the Constitution and general laws of the State of Maryland, do adopt this Charter as our instrument of government.

ARTICLE 1. LEGISLATIVE BRANCH.

Sec. 101. County Council.

All legislative powers which may be exercised by Montgomery County under the Constitution and laws of Maryland, including all law making powers heretofore exercised by the General Assembly of Maryland but transferred to the people of the County by virtue of the adoption of this Charter, and the legislative powers vested in the County Commissioners as a District Council for the Montgomery County Suburban District, shall be vested in the County Council. The legislative power shall also include, but shall not be limited to, the power to enact public local laws for the County and repeal or amend local laws for the County heretofore enacted by the General Assembly upon the matters covered by Article 25A, Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957, as now in force or hereafter amended, and the power to legislate for the peace, good government, health, safety or welfare of the County. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize or empower the County Council to enact laws or regulations for any incorporated town, village or municipality in said County on any matter covered by the powers granted to said town, village or municipality by the act incorporating it or any subsequent act or acts amendatory thereto.

Editor's note—The authorization of a road project is an executive rather than a legislative administrative act. Eggert v. Montgomery County Council, 263 Md. 243, 282 A.2d 474 (1971).

See County Attorney Opinion dated 3/12/09 explaining the Inspector General's authority to investigate an ongoing personnel matter as part of the goal of detecting and deterring fraud, waste and abuse. See County Attorney Opinion dated 10/1/08 explaining Council's ability to impose limitations on the Executive's ability to seek and obtain grants. See County Attorney Opinion dated 6/8/04-A describing the possible violation of separation of powers in a law authorizing the Council to set certain transportation fees without County Executive approval. See County Attorney Opinion dated 4/21/04 discussing the limited authority of the Commission on People With Disabilities and the role of the County Attorney as the legal advisor for the County. See County Attorney Opinion No. 97-1 dated 6/27/97 explaining that the law establishing the Office of the Inspector General as a principal office in the Executive Branch of County government conflicts with the Charter.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY CODE

The Charter

Sec. 102. Composition and Election.

The Council shall be composed of nine members, each of whom shall be a qualified voter of Montgomery County. Four Councilmembers shall be nominated and elected by the qualified voters of the entire County. Each of the five other members of the Council shall, at the time of Nomination and election and throughout the member's term of office, reside in a different Council district, and shall be nominated and elected by the qualified voters of that district. Any change in the boundaries of a Council district after a member is elected shall not render the member ineligible to complete the term for which the member was elected. No member of the Council shall hold any other office of profit in state, county or municipal government. No member of the Council shall be eligible for appointment during the member's term of office to any other office or position carrying compensation created by or under this Charter, except to County Executive in the event of a vacancy. (Election of 11-2-82; election of 11-4-86; election of 11-3-98; election of 11-4-14.)

Editor's note—See County Attorney Opinion No. 90.003 dated 3/30/90-A explaining that the County Charter requires a candidate for Council to reside in the councilmanic district that the person seeks to represent.

Sec. 103. Council Districts.

Montgomery County shall be divided into five Council districts for the purpose of nominating and electing five members of the Council. Each district shall be compact in form and be composed of adjoining territory. Populations of the Council districts shall be substantially equal. (Election of 11-3-98.)

Editor's note—See County Attorney Opinion dated 3/24/11 discussing the redistricting process. See County Attorney Opinion dated 3/20/91 explaining that the Redistricting Commission may consider and recognize natural and public municipal boundaries in creating new boundaries for councilmanic districts [updates 1981 analysis]. See County Attorney Opinion dated 3/20/91-A describing the impact of the Voting Rights Act on redistricting.

Sec. 104. Redistricting Procedure.

The boundaries of Council districts shall be reviewed in 1972 and every tenth year thereafter. Whenever district boundaries are to be reviewed, the Council shall appoint, not later than February 1 of the year before the year in which redistricting is to take effect, a commission on redistricting. The Commission shall be composed of four members from each political party chosen from a list of eight individuals submitted by the central committee of each political party which polled at least fifteen percent of the total vote cast for all candidates for the Council in the last preceding regular election. Each list shall include at least one individual who resides in each Council district. The Council shall appoint one additional member of the Commission. The Commission shall include at least one member who resides in each Council district, and the number of members of the Commission who reside in the same Council district shall not exceed the number of political parties which submitted a list to the Council. The Commission shall, at its first meeting, select one of its members to serve as its chair. No person who holds any elected office shall be eligible for appointment to the Commission.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY CODE

The Charter

By November 15 of the year before the year in which redistricting is to take effect, the Commission shall present a plan of Council districts, together with a report explaining it, to the Council. Within thirty days after receiving the plan of the Commission, the Council shall hold a public hearing on the plan. If within ninety days after presentation of the Commission's plan no other law reestablishing the boundaries of the Council districts has been enacted, then the plan, as submitted, shall become law. After any redistricting plan or any other law amending the boundaries of Council districts becomes law, the boundaries of the Council districts so established shall apply to the next regular election for Councilmembers and to any special election held or appointment made to fill a vacancy on the Council that occurs after those boundaries are established. (Election of 11-2-82; election of 11-3-98; election of 11-4-14.)

Editor's note—See County Attorney Opinion No. 95.003 dated 12/6/95 explaining that the Council retains the authority to control whether the Commission on Redistricting plan becomes law, but the Council must take action within 90 days of receiving the plan. See County Attorney Opinion dated 1/9/92 explaining that not all meetings fall within the Open Meetings Act and, therefore, not all meetings need to be open to the public or included in public notice.

Sec. 105. Term of Office.

Members of the Council shall hold office for a term beginning at noon on the first Monday of December next following the regular election for the Council and ending at noon on the first Monday of December in the fourth year thereafter.

Sec. 106. Vacancies.

A vacancy shall occur when any member of the Council shall, before the expiration of the term for which the member was elected, die, resign the office, become disqualified for membership on the Council, or be removed from office. Unless the Council has provided by law for filling a vacancy by special election, the following process for filling a vacancy shall apply. When a vacancy has occurred, a majority of the remaining members of the Council shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy within thirty days. An appointee to fill a vacancy, when succeeding a party member, shall be a member of the same political party as the person elected to such office at the time of election. If the Council has not acted within thirty days, the County Executive shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy within ten days thereafter. If a person having held the vacant position was a member of a political party at the time of election, the person appointed by the County Executive shall be the nominee of the County Central Committee of that party. An appointee shall serve for the unexpired term of the previous member. If the previous member was elected by the voters of a Council district, any person appointed to fill that vacancy shall reside in the district represented by the previous member as it exists when the vacancy occurs. (Election of 11-2-82; election of 11-8-88; election of 11-3-98; election of 11-4-14.)

Editor's note—See County Attorney Opinion dated 2/19/99 discussing filling an interim Council vacancy by temporary appointment pending a special election.

The Charter

Sec. 107. Compensation.

The Council shall prescribe by law the compensation for its members. Membership on the Council shall be considered a full-time position for the purpose of determining compensation. No change in the compensation of members of the Council shall become effective during the term of office of the Council enacting the change. (Election of 11-7-06.)

Sec. 108. Officers of the Council.

The Council shall elect, from among its members, a president of the Council, who shall preside over meetings of the Council. The Council may provide for the selection of such other officers or employees as it may deem desirable for the exercise of its powers. The Council may employ or retain special legal counsel to assist it in the exercise of its powers, and may provide by law for special legal counsel to assist, advise, or represent any office of the legislative branch in the exercise of its duties. Any special legal counsel employed or retained under this section shall be subject to appropriation and is not subject to Section 213. (Election of 11-6-84; election of 11-5-02.)

Sec. 109. Sessions.

The first and third Tuesdays of each month, and such additional days as the Council may determine, are designated as days for the enactment of legislation, but the Council shall not sit for more than forty-five days in each year for the purpose of enacting legislation. When a first or third Tuesday is an official holiday, the next succeeding Tuesday business day shall be a day for the enactment of legislation. The Council may sit in nonlegislative sessions at such other times as it may determine. In nonlegislative sessions, the Council may adopt rules and regulations which implement or provide for the administration or execution of legislation under procedures and provisions for notice and hearing prescribed by law. The Council shall not take or discuss any action except in public session or in a closed session expressly allowed by the Council rules of procedure. The Council rules of procedure shall permit the same or greater public access to Council sessions as the state Open Meetings Act or any successor state law. The Council shall not make or confirm any appointment in a closed session. (Election of 11-4-80; election of 11-2-82; election of 11-5-02.)

Editor's note—In Montgomery Citizens League v. Greenhalgh, 253 Md. 151, 252 A.2d 242 (1969), it was held that the council need not designate an emergency extra session a legislative day separate and apart from the call of the session.

See County Attorney Opinion dated 7/14/00 discussing the need to modernize the Charter in relation to access to documents. See County Attorney Opinion dated 6/19/00 recommending an amendment to the Charter to conform with State law.

MONTGOMERY COUNTY CODE
The Charter

Sec. 110. Exercise of Zoning, Planning and Other Powers.

In the exercise of powers authorized by any act of the General Assembly or the Constitution of Maryland, other than the law making power vested in it by Article XI-A of the Constitution and the grant of express powers in Article 25A, Annotated Code of Maryland, 1957, the Council shall follow the procedure set forth in such law or section of the Constitution and the exercise thereof shall be effected in the manner prescribed therein. The powers relating to zoning, planning or subdividing shall be exercised as prescribed by law. (Election of 11-4-86; election of 11-8-88.)

Sec. 111. Enactment of Legislation.

The Council shall enact legislation only after public hearing upon reasonable notice. No legislation shall be enacted by the Council unless it receives the affirmative vote of five members of the Council. Legislation containing a section declaring that it is necessary for the immediate protection of the public health, safety, or interest, and enacted by the affirmative vote of at least six members of the Council, shall be expedited legislation. Expedited legislation, as defined in this section, is the emergency legislation referred to in Article XI-A, Section 3, of the Constitution of Maryland. Sec. 313. Purchasing.

The Council shall prescribe by law a centralized system of purchasing and contracting for all goods and services used by the County. The centralized purchasing system shall be administered under the professional supervision of the Chief Administrative Officer subject to the direction of the County Executive.

Editor's note—See County Attorney Opinion dated 4/13/99 (4/15/99 on cover memo) analyzing the Chief Administrative Officer's authority to make a sole-source contract in excess of $25,000 without obtaining consent of the director of procurement or the contract review committee. Any law which creates a new department, principal office, or agency, or designates a position as a non-merit position, requires the affirmative vote of six Councilmembers for enactment. Any law which repeals the designation of a position as a non-merit position requires the affirmative vote of five Councilmembers for enactment.

Officers and employees subject to a collective bargaining agreement may be excluded from provisions of law governing the merit system only to the extent that the applicability of those provisions is made subject to collective bargaining by legislation enacted under Section 510, Section 510A, or Section 511 of this Charter.

The merit system shall provide the means to recruit, select, develop, and maintain an effective, non-partisan, and responsive work force with personnel actions based on demonstrated merit and fitness. Salaries and wages of all classified employees in the merit system shall be determined pursuant to a uniform salary plan. The Council shall establish by law a system of retirement pay.

The Council by law may exempt probationary employees, temporary employees, and term employees from some or all of the provisions of law governing the merit system, but the law shall require these employees to be recruited, selected and promoted on the basis of demonstrated merit and fitness.

The Council by law may establish within the merit system a program to recruit and select qualified individuals with severe physical or mental disabilities on a noncompetitive basis. Anne R. Kaiser
House Delegation Chair
6 Bladen Street, Room 151
House Office Building
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear Delegate Kaiser,

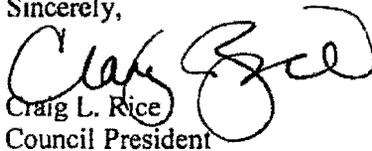

It has recently come to my attention that there is a discrepancy in the manner in which vacancies in elected County offices are filled. The Montgomery County Charter permits, and the County Code requires, a special election to fill a vacant seat on the County Council. Specifically, County Code Section 16-17 requires a special election to fill "a vacancy on the Council that occurs before December 1 of the year before a year in which a quadrennial state election will be held." However, in the event of a vacancy in the position of County Executive, Charter Section 205 provides only for the appointment of a successor within 45 days by a vote of not less than five members of the Council. If the Council fails to make such an appointment within 45 days, Section 205 further provides that the Council shall appoint, within 15 days, the nominee of the County Central Committee of the political party of the elected County Executive. There is neither provision in the Charter, nor requirement in the County Code, for a special election to fill a vacancy in the office of County Executive. I am unclear as to why this incongruity exists, as it gives voters the opportunity to fill a vacancy in one office by special election, but not the other.

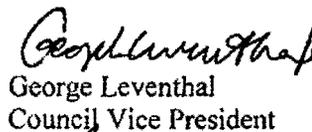

Unfortunately, this is not a matter that can be resolved locally by Charter and County Code amendment. The Quadrennial Elections Article of the Maryland Constitution, Article XVII, provides that all state and county elections are to take place every four years on the date for congressional elections. The only exception to this election schedule is for "a special election that may be authorized to fill a vacancy in a County Council under Article XI-A, Section 3 of the Constitution." Article XI-A, Section 3, among other things, empowers charter counties "to provide for the filling of a vacancy in the County Council by special election." The Express Powers Act, Title 10 of the Local Government Article of the Maryland Code, then provides that a "county may provide for the conduct of a special election to fill a vacancy in the county council." Finally, there are sections in the Election Law Article that govern the conduct of a special election to fill a county council vacancy, if so provided for in a county charter. There are no corresponding provisions in State law related to special elections to fill a vacancy in the office of County Executive.

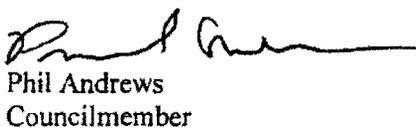

The Constitution, the Express Powers Act, and the Elections Article were amended in 1996 to permit special elections to fill County Council vacancies, and to grant charter counties the power to provide for such elections. See Chapters 81 and 674, 1996 Laws of Maryland. These amendments were designed to supersede the Court of Appeals' decision in Prince George's County v. Bd of Supvrs of Elections of Prince George's County, 337 Md. 496 (1995), which invalidated a Prince George's County Charter amendment providing for special elections to fill interim vacancies on the County Council. In Prince George's County, the question related solely to vacancies on the County Council, not in the position of County Executive, and the subsequent amendments to the Constitution and Code provided only the authority for a charter county to conduct special elections to fill County Council vacancies. I am concerned that if Montgomery County tried to resolve this inconsistency at the county level, we would find ourselves in the same predicament that Prince George's County faced in the early 1990s.

Because I believe that the voters of the County should have the same opportunity to fill a vacancy in the position of County Executive as they do for a Councilmember, I ask if there is interest on the part of members of the delegation to pursue the necessary amendments to the Maryland Constitution and Code to make this a possibility. If the State law were amended to permit it, the County could pursue the necessary Charter and County Code amendments to provide for and require a special election to fill a vacancy in the office of County Executive under the same circumstances as is required to fill a vacancy on the Council.

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, (Three–fifths of all the members elected to each of the two Houses concurring), That it be proposed that the Maryland Constitution read as follows:

Article XI–A – Local Legislation

Every charter so formed shall provide for an elective legislative body in which shall be vested the law–making power of said City or County. Such legislative body in the City of Baltimore shall be known as the City Council of the City of Baltimore, and in any county shall be known as the County Council of the County. The chief executive officer OR COUNTY EXECUTIVE, if any such charter shall provide for the election of such executive officer OR COUNTY EXECUTIVE, or the presiding officer of said legislative body, if such charter shall not provide for the election of a chief executive officer OR COUNTY EXECUTIVE, shall be known in the City of Baltimore as Mayor of Baltimore, and in any County as the President or Chairman of the County Council of the County, and all references in the Constitution and laws of this State to the Mayor of Baltimore and City Council of the City of Baltimore or to the County Commissioners of the Counties, shall be construed to refer to the Mayor of Baltimore and City Council of the City of Baltimore and to the President or Chairman and County Council herein provided for whenever such construction would be reasonable. From and after the adoption of a charter by the City of Baltimore, or any County of this State, as hereinbefore provided, the Mayor of Baltimore and City Council of the City of Baltimore or the County Council of said County, subject to the Constitution and Public General Laws of this State, shall have full power to enact local laws of said City or County including the power to repeal or amend local laws of said City or County enacted by the General Assembly, upon all matters covered by the express powers granted as above provided, and, as expressly authorized by statute, to provide for the filling of a vacancy in the County Council OR IN THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER OR COUNTY EXECUTIVE by special election; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize or empower the County Council of any County in this State to enact laws or regulations for any incorporated town, village, or municipality in said County, on any matter covered by the powers granted to said town, village, or municipality by the Act incorporating it, or any subsequent Act or Acts amendatory thereto. Provided, however, that the charters for the various Counties shall specify the number of days, not to exceed forty–five, which may but need not be consecutive, that the County Council of the Counties may sit in each year for the purpose of enacting legislation for such Counties, and all legislation shall be enacted at the times so designated for that purpose in the charter, and the title or a summary of all laws and ordinances proposed shall be published once a week for two successive weeks prior to enactment followed by publication once after enactment in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the county, so that the taxpayers and citizens may have notice thereof. The validity of emergency legislation shall not be affected if enacted prior to the completion of advertising thereof. These provisions concerning publication shall not apply to Baltimore City. All such local laws enacted by the Mayor of Baltimore and City Council of the City of Baltimore or the Council of the Counties as hereinbefore provided, shall be subject to the same rules of interpretation as those now applicable to the Public Local Laws of this State, except that in case of any conflict between said local law and any Public General Law now or hereafter enacted the Public General Law shall control.

  - (1) A vacancy on the Council that occurs before December 1 of the year before a year in which a quadrennial state election will be held must be filled by a special election as provided in this Section.
  - (2) The special election must be conducted among the registered voters of the Council district represented by the previous member, or among the registered voters of the entire County when the previous member did not represent a Council district.
  - (3) The person elected to fill a Council vacancy must meet the same qualifications and residence requirements, but need not be registered to vote in the same political party, as the previous member.
  - (4) The Councilmember elected at a special election serves:
    - (A) from the date the person elected takes the oath of office after the Board (sitting as a Board of Canvassers under state law) certifies the result of the special election; and
    - (B) for the rest of the unexpired term of the previous member.
- (c) Except as otherwise provided in this Section, and to the extent applicable:
  - (1) The special election must be conducted in a manner consistent with provisions of state law that govern special elections to fill vacancies in the office of representative in Congress. The deadlines and time periods required under those provisions of state law apply to a special Council election unless the Council, acting under subsection (d) or subsection (e), expressly modifies them.
  - (2) Except as provided in paragraph (1), the general provisions of state and County law that govern quadrennial elections for Councilmembers apply to the special election conducted under this Section.

If a second regular or special primary or general election conducted in the County under state law is held more than 30 but less than 60 days after the special primary election referred to in the preceding sentence, the special general election held under this Section must be held on the same date as the second other election.
- (3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a special primary or special general election under this Section must not be held within 30 days before or after any regular or special primary or general election conducted in the County under state law.
- (e) If the Board advises the Council in writing that certain deadlines or other time periods provided by state law cannot be complied with in a special election held under this Section, or that compliance with those deadlines or time periods would be unreasonable or burdensome, the Council may in the resolution set other deadlines or time periods appropriate for the special election held under this Section.
- (f) Immediately after adopting a resolution under this Section, the Council must deliver the resolution to the Board.
- (g) Within 7 calendar days after adopting the resolution, the Council must publish a notice that a vacancy has occurred in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the County. The notice must specify:
