Election Training for the Primary Election

Election Worker training is required by law to participate. Training consists of two parts: an Online Training Quiz and an In-Person training session.

Online Training Quiz- The Online Quiz requires reading of chapters 1-4 of the Election Judge manual, watching two videos, and then completing a 50 question Quiz. The Quiz covers basic information about serving as an Election Worker. Once the Quiz is completed successfully with a passing score, a Recruiter will review the quiz results and email you information regarding your service position with instructions to schedule your In-Person Training. This may take 2-5 business days. Applicants for Election Workers positions have two attempts to pass the quiz. If the second attempt to pass the quiz is unsuccessful, you are not eligible to serve in the upcoming Primary election, while you are eligible to attempt again for the 2024 General Election.

In-Person Training Class - The In-Person Training class allows Election Workers to practice with actual election equipment. Workers will receive instruction on the procedures and responsibilities of the precinct team and their specific position. You will complete practice exercises and forms; role play with the voting equipment and simulate setting up and breaking down a polling place.

Scheduling In-Person Training Class- Most Election Worker positions, regardless of prior experience, require In-Person training. Once you have successfully completed the Online Quiz, your Recruiter will provide instructions via email on how to schedule your In-Person Training class. In-Person Training is based on the specific position for which you are selected to serve. You will use our online scheduling feature in EJ Connection to select a class that best matches your schedule. Training is available on weekdays, evenings, and weekends.

Note: You will only be allowed one opportunity to reschedule your training class. Be sure you can attend the training session before you sign-up. If you are unable to attend, call the Recruitment Office and we will cancel your enrollment in the class.
