Recipients of 2013 Montgomery Serves Awards Announced;
Awards Ceremony
Monday, April 29
6:30pm – 8:30pm
Imagination Stage
4908 Auburn Avenue, Bethesda

Montgomery County Executive Leggett will present awards to nine honorees at the Second Annual Montgomery Serves Awards event to be held on Monday, April 29 at Imagination Stage in Bethesda.

First presented in 2012, the Nix award honors an individual or individuals who over the course of their distinguished lives of community service have made extraordinary contributions to the quality of our community at the very highest levels of excellence. Leggett selected Odessa Shannon, Carol Trawick and Teresa Rios Wright as recipients of the Roscoe R. Nix Distinguished Community Leadership Award. (Ms. Wright is an Upcounty resident!)

The Neal Potter Path of Achievement Award, named for the former County Councilmember, County Executive and civic activist, honors seniors age 60 and older who have given a lifetime of volunteer community service. Representatives from the Commission on Aging chose Marcine D. Goodloe and Joyce B. Siegel as winners from a large pool of nominations made by the public.

The 2013 Montgomery Serves Awards recognize special volunteer accomplishments during the 2012 calendar year in four categories: Alfredo Colina Iturralde was selected in the youth category; MedImmune (located in Upcounty!) in the business service category; Robert Zagorski for community service by an individual; and the Montgomery County Alumnae Chapter, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. for community service by a group. Judges chose these winners from nearly 100 nominations.

The awards ceremony is free and open to the public, but seating is limited and pre-registration is required.

For more information or to register for the event on April 29, go to <http://www.montgomeryserves.org/montgomery-serves-awards-2013> or call 240-777-2600.
