for Keeping It Safe (KIS)

We Value Your Privacy
Your support and your trust are very important to us. This informs our policies about how we use your personal information.

Do we collect your personal information?

Personal information we collect may include, but is not limited to, your name, postal address, zip code, telephone number, organization name, e-mail address, credit card, bank, or billing information, depending on the type of transaction or correspondence you have with us.

How do we collect personal information?

Information is collected using a variety of methods. You will be asked to provide your personal information when making a donation, or requesting information or updates through our website, e-mail, direct mail or telephone communications.

Do we share your information?

KIS does not sell donor information to anyone, including other nonprofit organizations. We occasionally exchange a small percentage of our addresses to other reputable nonprofit organizations, primarily. Such information exchange allows JSV to realize a substantial cost savings, ensuring that we can be good stewards of the resources so generously donated to us.

Can I control how you use my personal information?

Absolutely. We will always honor your wishes. If you have any concerns about how your information is handled, or to add your name to our do-not-share list please e-mail, call or write us. Please provide us with your exact name and address. We will be sure your name is not on any list we share with other organizations.
