Logistics

- Event Promotion
 - How will you get the word out and monitor RSVP's?
 - The event should be independently targeted to middle school or high school, not both.
- Determine Start Time & End Time
 - The event should end by a time that allows for the provisional driver's license to get home by midnight
- Check In & Check Out
 - Check In*
 - Registration table(s)
 - Collect students: name, school, and emergency phone number
 - Acceptable ID's: School issued student ID or school schedule
 - Mark each student as they arrive with stamp or wristband
 - Have a policy on what to do if attendee forgets or does not have an acceptable ID
 - Coat/phone/purse check
 - Check Out*
 - Policy in place if attendee leaves before event ends (example: no re-entry)
- Will there be an admission fee/advance tickets sold? (this will limit accessibility)
- Food Service:
 - If food is being offered, who will be providing the food (caterer, event location, etc.)?
 - Will cost be in admission fee, or will it be an open cash concession for attendees?
- Room lighting: do not have it too dark.
- Designated "cafe" area for students to relax, talk, and/or enjoy refreshments.
 - Make sure the designated area is well lit
