

To the Council Members,

I am in full support of Councilmember's Nancy Navarro's resolution to recognize the second Monday in October as Indigenous Peoples' Day. I also fully support the resolution to adopt this day as an official state holiday, and to urge Montgomery County Public Schools to undergo a review of its curriculum to better incorporate the histories, narratives and cultures of the country's Native peoples.