

To whom it may concern,

First, I will start out by saying, that I understand the concerns most people have about spreading the Covid-19 virus. However, I really don't see how playing football will increase the chances of catching the virus, more than any other sport. With that being said, (and to make it fair & equal across the board) it either all sports, or no sports.

Ty Sterling