

I am very happy that this law has been proposed. I fully support it. We need to support our pollinators to ensure our food system and quality of life.