

Join MCDOT at GreenFest Saturday, April 30

For Immediate Release: Friday, April 29, 2016

MCDOT will be an active participant at this year's second annual GreenFest, which will be held Saturday, April 30 at the Takoma Park Community Center.

Attendees are urged to visit MCDOT's tent to learn more about the department's sustainable activities that are enhancing environmental quality, promoting economic prosperity and improving quality of life with accessible and affordable transportation options.

Other opportunities to learn more about MCDOT's programs include a panel discussion on sustainable transportation in Montgomery County featuring MCDOT Director Al Roshdieh. The workshop is scheduled for 3 to 4 p.m. and is sponsored by Poolesville Green, GreenWheaton, Bethesda Green and Silver Spring Green.

In addition, MCDOT is a co-sponsor of an environmental scavenger hunt, is featuring a hybrid electric Ride On bus in the electric car show, and is sponsoring an awards ceremony for its annual photography contest and landscape beautification competition winners. The awards will be presented at Piney Branch Elementary School at 1:30 p.m.
