Maryland State Board of Elections

Election Judge Interest Application

Montgomery County Board of Elections

Serve your community by becoming an election judge! Your local board of elections is seeking dedicated individuals to ensure fair and accessible elections. No prior experience is needed, and mandatory training will be provided. As an election judge, you will set up and break down the polling place, check in and assist voters, and oversee election procedures, playing a vital role in upholding the integrity of the electoral process and voters' fundamental right to vote. Being selected as an election judge may require working 15-hour days and lifting up to 25 lbs. Reasonable accommodations are available.

Please read and complete the entire application. You will be notified by your local election office if you are selected to be an election judge.
