Please note that under Maryland law a person can have only one property listed as that person's principal residence -- the residence where the person lives. The Income Tax Offset Credit ("Credit") is available only for properties that are the property owner's principal residence. To continue to receive the Credit, you must certify that the property in question ("Property Address", above) is your principal residence.

You must submit Proof of Residence for the Property Address to receive the Credit. You MUST SUBMIT a copy of an Electric Bill for the Property Address that shows your name as the party being billed, and the bill must be from the last 2 months.

You MUST ALSO SUBMIT a copy of one of the following: your current Driver's License, OR the first page of your most recent Maryland Income Tax Return, OR the first page of your most recent Federal Income Tax Return. The Address on these documents must match the Property Address.

You must submit this →	Electric Bill (must be from the last 2 months)
AND one of these	<input type="checkbox"/> Driver's License or Government Issued ID

By signing your name below, you are certifying that you own the Property Address property AND YOU OCCUPY THE PROPERTY ADDRESS as your principal residence. Your certification is your legal attestation that the Property Address property is your principal residence.
