Camden Yards via Public Transportation

Camden Yards is located in downtown Baltimore.

www.mlb.com/orioles/ballpark/transportation

Accessible parking spaces have been reserved for season plan holders with disabilities utilizing equal access seating. The remaining accessible individual parking spaces are available on a first-come, first-served basis and are located in Lots A & B. Parking in these spots requires a state-issued handicapped license-plate or hangtag. Should these extra spaces be filled, attendants will direct fans to the nearest open parking or to the stadium's designated Drop-Off Areas. All parking lots will open 1 hour prior to scheduled first pitch. For more information on accessibility at Camden Yards, visit www.mlb.com/orioles/ballpark/disability-access-guide.

Drop-Off Areas: For any car or bus, there are three drop-off areas available to both drop off and pick up passengers. Drop-off points are available at the east side of the Warehouse at the breezeway (directly next to Gate A), at Home Plate Plaza on the Russell Street service drive (next to Gate D) and at the north end of the service drive (next to Gate F).
