301-621-7830 (Washington)

1-877-463-3464 (Toll Free – Maryland Department of Health and Mental Hygiene)

<https://mmcp.health.maryland.gov/waiverprograms/Pages/Model-Waiver-Fact-Sheet.aspx>

Allows medically fragile individuals who would otherwise be hospitalized and are certified as needing either hospital or nursing facility level of care to receive medically necessary and appropriate services in the community. As a result, the Model Waiver clients can continue to live at home with their families. The maximum number of individuals who may be enrolled in the Model Waiver is 200. Eligibility Guidelines:

Admission must be completed before the individual becomes 22 years old. The individual must meet the definition of a disabled child at the time application for Model Waiver services is made. The term “disabled child” means a chronically ill or severely impaired child, younger than 22 years old, whose illness or disability may not require 24-hour inpatient care, but which, in the absence of home care services, may precipitate admission to or prolong stay in a hospital, nursing facility, or other long-term facility. The individual must be certified as in need of a hospital or nursing facility level of care. This level of care is determined by a state contracted reviewer using information supplied by the referring physician. The individual's medically necessary and appropriate community based medical services must be cost neutral and must not exceed the cost of institutional care. Parents' income and assets are waived during the financial eligibility process.

Rare and Expensive Case Management (REM)

<https://mmcp.health.maryland.gov/longtermcare/Pages/REM-Program.aspx>

Program is a case managed fee for service alternative to HealthChoice Managed Care Organization (MCO) participation for recipients with specified rare and expensive conditions. REM case managers, either a registered nurse or a licensed social worker, assist the recipient with reaching his/her highest level of functioning capability. This is done through service coordination, home visits and a variety of other case management services including: assessment of recipient needs; patient education; family support services; development of treatment plan; coordination of provider services; and follow-up of recipient's progress. Eligibility Guidelines: A person must be eligible for HealthChoice in order to receive REM services. Also, the REM program is limited to individuals with certain qualifying conditions or diseases. The Managed Care Organization, the recipient's doctor or any other concerned person, can refer a recipient to the REM Program. Before a recipient can be referred to the REM Program, the MCO must first identify the recipient as a potential REM candidate. A recipient can also refer himself or herself. The referral can take place at the time of diagnosis or anytime afterwards.
