

32nd ANNUAL DR. NANCY DWORKIN AWARDS FOR OUTSTANDING SERVICE TO YOUTH

The Montgomery County Commission on Children and Youth Calls for Nominations for the 32nd Annual Dr. Nancy Dworkin Awards for Outstanding Service to Youth

The award is named in honor of Dr. Nancy Dworkin, past chairperson for the Commission on Children and Youth who passed away in 1987. Dr. Dworkin was the Director of the Center for Unique Learners, a Rockville based school for children with learning disabilities. Her upbeat instructional philosophy focused on “teaching to strength” and encouraging all students to develop skills that would maximize their potential. Dr. Dworkin’s philosophy is echoed in the Commission’s purpose for establishing this Awards Program—encouraging each person to reach their own potential for providing service to others.

The award recipients will be honored at an annual ceremony on the evening of Thursday, May 24, 2018 at the Gilchrist Hall Auditorium, Johns Hopkins University in Rockville.

The Dr. Nancy Dworkin Awards for Outstanding Service to Youth is sponsored by the Montgomery County Commission on Children and Youth. The Commission is a group of 27 committed volunteers that advises the County Executive, County Council, Department of Health and Human Services, and the Board of Education on the development of coordinated community and government policies, programs and services which support children, youth and families.

Nomination Process:

- 1) Nominations may be made by anyone who knows of the nominee and can speak to their commitment of service.
- 2) All nominees must have performed a service for children and youth in Montgomery County.
- 3) Nominations should be emailed to Erin Stillwell, program manager for the Commission on Children and Youth. Email: erin.stillwell@montgomerycountymd.gov

Deadline:

ALL NOMINATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY TUESDAY, APRIL 3, 2018 @ 5:00 P.M.

Guidelines/Criteria for Nominations:

In selecting the award recipients, the nominating committee will consider the quality and depth of service, longevity of service, number of children and youth benefiting from the service, and the impact this service has made on diverse communities.

All nominations must include the following:

1. A cover page that includes the following information about the nominator and the nominee:
 - The nominee's name, address, email, organization or business (if applicable) and telephone number.
 - The nominating award category (Youth, Service Provider, Volunteer, Organization or Business).
 - The nominator's name, address, email, telephone number, and employer (name of business or organization) and how the nominator is familiar with the nominee's service.
2. Rationale for nomination (No more than two typewritten pages).
 - Describe specific services or contributions of the nominee.
 - Explain what makes the nominee special or sets the nominee apart from others.
 - Describe the setting in which the nominee has worked with children, and the number of years the nominee has provided the service.
 - Detail the nominee's commitment to making a difference in the life of a child/youth.
 - Detail how the nominee's service has made an impact on diverse communities.
3. Two additional letters of support
 - These letters may come from two additional individuals who also know of the nominee's service. (These letters should not be written by the individual providing the Rationale for Nomination).
 - It is helpful if the letters of support address the quality of service, length of time for which services were provided, number of children and youth benefiting from the service and impact to diverse communities.
