

Free Online Learning Courses through MCPL's Lynda.com Portal Over 6,000 Courses to Enhance Your Skills

The Office of Human Resources (OHR) is pleased to provide information on free e-learning Lynda.com training courses for Montgomery County Government employees, contractors, volunteers and interns. Lynda.com is a collection of high-quality video tutorials taught by industry experts. Lynda.com offers many structured learning paths and more than 6,000 courses to help you meet your career goals. Courses include:

- Computer Programming
- Conflict Resolution
- Customer Service
- Diversity and Equity
- Languages
- Leadership
- Management
- Microsoft Office including SharePoint
- Personal and Career Development
- Project Management
- Technology Training

The courses, organized by subject and skill level, can be accessed from computer, tablet or mobile device. Learn a whole course or just the needed section. Everyone learns in their own way and at their own pace. Also, Lynda.com owned by LinkedIn, so individuals who have a LinkedIn account can add classes they have taken on Lynda.com to a LinkedIn profile.

How to Access the Free Courses

Free access to Lynda.com courses is funded by Montgomery County Public Libraries (MCPL). All MCPL cardholders in good standing are eligible. County residents may apply for a card online or in person; employees who live outside the County may apply for a card by visiting any library branch.

To access the free courses, users must logon to the Lynda.com Portal through the MCPL website and enter their library card number and PIN:

MCPL Lynda.com Portal

For More Information

For more information, please visit the Lynda.com website under the Montgomery County Library Guides here. Current MCPL library card holders can access Lynda.com here.