OIG Finds Senior MCFRS Employee Violated the Department's Code of Conduct

Rockville, Maryland – Montgomery County Maryland Inspector General Megan Davey Limarzi announced today the release of a new Office of the Inspector General (OIG) Memorandum of Investigation, Misconduct by a Senior Montgomery County Fire and Rescue Service \(MCFRS\) Employee, detailing the results of an OIG investigation into allegations of inappropriate conduct by a senior MCFRS employee. The OIG investigation revealed that in 2021 the subject employee violated the “hands-off” and decorum provisions of MCFRS Executive Regulation 22-00AM Code of Ethics and On-Duty Personal Conduct. The investigation also revealed that during a different event in 2019 the subject employee used language that violated the decorum provisions of MCFRS Executive Regulation 22-00AM Code of Ethics and On-Duty Personal Conduct. The results of the investigation have been referred to the county's Chief Administrative Officer for further action.
