

Public Affairs Office
Naval Support Activity Bethesda
Bethesda, MD 20889
(301) 295-1803
RELEASE: 18-04
August 17, 2018

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADVISORY: Capt. Mary S. Seymour assumed the role of commanding officer of Naval Support Activity Bethesda during a ceremony held at the installation Aug. 17. Capt. Seymour relieves Capt. Marvin L. Jones.

WHO: Capt. Mary S. Seymour

Captain Mary Seymour joined the Navy in 1991 from Hartford, Indiana, after earning her Bachelor of Science Degree in Accounting from Ball State University in 1990. She joined as a Medical Service Corps officer. Capt. Seymour comes to NSAB from the Navy Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, where she was the Director of Medical Logistics. Her previous assignments include Naval Hospital, Corpus Christi, Texas; Navy Recruiting District, Indianapolis, Indiana; Naval Personnel Command, Millington, Tennessee; U.S. Naval Hospital, Rota, Spain; and National War College, Washington, D.C.

WHAT: Capt. Seymour takes over as NSA Bethesda's commanding officer after relieving Capt. Marvin L. Jones.

OTHER: The ceremony was held at 10 a.m., Aug. 17, 2018 in Memorial Auditorium of Walter Reed National Military Medical Center at Naval Support Activity Bethesda.

POC: MC3 Julio Martinez Martinez
Public Affairs Staff, NSA Bethesda
Email: julio.j.martinezmartinez.mil@mail.mil

NSA Bethesda provides customer-focused installation management and base operating support to more than 40 mission partners in their pursuit of excellence. We partner in healing, wellness, research and education. Our mission partners include Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, Uniformed Services University and Armed Services Blood Program.

Follow NSA Bethesda on Facebook: <https://www.facebook.com/nsabethesda>