

MAGDALENA D'AIUTO

7600 Wisconsin Avenue Suite 625 Bethesda, Maryland 20814

mdaiuto@feldmanjackson.com | (301) 715-8116

BAR ADMISSION

Maryland, District of Columbia

EMPLOYMENT

Feldman Jackson, PC

Bethesda, Maryland

Associate Attorney, May 2022—Present

Practice exclusively family law in both Maryland and the District of Columbia. Represent clients in family law matters including complex financial and custody issues, child support, alimony, marital property, and retirement assets. Work duties include drafting settlement agreements, pleadings, motions, discovery documents, and correspondence; meeting with clients; negotiating with opposing counsel; and preparing for and attending trial.

The Law Offices of Sandra Guzman-Salvado, LLC

Rockville, Maryland

Associate Attorney, September 2021—May 2022

Drafted complaints, answers, motions, and other pleadings for family law cases. Prepared discovery requests and assisted clients with responding to incoming discovery requests. Experienced in legal research, trial preparation, and negotiation and settlement.

The Honorable Joan E. Ryon, Circuit Court for Montgomery County

Rockville, Maryland

Judicial Law Clerk, August 2020—August 2021

Conducted legal research and drafted bench memoranda in preparation for motions and merits hearings in family law, civil motions, and criminal post-conviction matters. Drafted opinions and orders pursuant to rulings on dispositive motions, post-conviction petitions, and administrative agency appeals.

Domestic Violence Legal Empowerment and Appeals Project

Washington, D.C.

Law Clerk, August 2019—April 2020

Researched family law issues in multiple jurisdictions. Vetted potential cases by reviewing trial transcripts and researching relevant law. Drafted memoranda with recommendations for cases.

EDUCATION

George Mason University Antonin Scalia Law School

Arlington, Virginia

Juris Doctor, cum laude, May 2020

Activities: Research assistant, Prof. Caroline Cecot; Civil Rights Law Journal, Senior Research Editor (2019-2020); Moot Court Board

University of Central Florida

Orlando, Florida

Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, magna cum laude, May 2017

Minor: Sociology