

Delegate Nicole Williams, D-22

Delegate Williams was born and raised in Washington D.C. by her mother and grandparents. She received her bachelor's degree and law degree at the University of Pittsburgh. Delegate Williams represents Maryland's 22nd District in the Maryland General Assembly, which covers several major towns in the heart of Prince George's County. She has represented District 22 since being sworn in on December 6th, 2019. She is the Chair of the Prince George's County House Delegation, Vice Chair of the Democratic Caucus, Chair of the Public Safety Subcommittee in the House Judiciary Committee, and a member of several legislative caucuses aiming to make future legislation more inclusive for all. Outside of her work as a Delegate, she is a real estate attorney that always advocates for better housing opportunities for her clients.

Melissa Dzenkowski

Detective/Acting Sgt. Dzenkowski has been a Montgomery County Police Officer Since 2008. She has been assigned to the Vice and Intelligence Unit since 2016. During her career, Det. Dzenkowski has received numerous awards within the department to include Lifesaving awards, Unit Citations, The Chief's Award and several Commendations. In 2018, the Vice and Intelligence Unit received the State of Maryland Governor's Citation for the unit's involvement in trafficking arrests related to numerous spa investigations. Det. Dzenkowski has attended numerous trainings related to Trafficking and Prostitution and is a subject matter expert in the field of Sex-Trafficking and Prostitution.

Lindsey Carpenter

Lindsey Carpenter is the Chief of the Special Victims Unit at the Frederick County State's Attorney's Office. She received a bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from the University of Maryland College Park and graduated summa cum laude from the University of Baltimore School of Law. She has been a prosecutor since 2013, first working at the Baltimore County State's Attorney's Office and later transitioning to the Frederick County State's Attorney's Office. Lindsey is a member of the Child Advocacy Center's Multi-disciplinary Team as well as the Frederick County Sexual Assault Response Team. She is chair of the Frederick County Human Trafficking Response Team and co-chair of the INTERCEPT (Inter-agency child exploitation and persons trafficking) Task Force.

Julia Aviles Zavala, LBSW

Julia is a First Generation Mexican-Honduran American. She is a Montgomery County native and proud to be a lifelong Marylander. She obtained her bachelor's degree in social work from the University of Maryland, Baltimore County and is currently pursuing her master's degree in social work from the University of Maryland, Baltimore. Julia is a Licensed Social Worker at the bachelor's level and works as a Bilingual Case Manager with the University of Maryland Support, Advocacy, Freedom, and Empowerment (SAFE) Center for Human Trafficking Survivors. Through her position with SAFE Center, she serves as a Regional Navigator providing case management and crisis intervention services to youth in Prince George's and Montgomery County. Julia's background includes a decade of immigrant advocacy, efforts that have continued in the anti-trafficking space over the past three years. This past December, Julia received an appointment to the Montgomery County Human Trafficking Prevention Committee. She intends to continue her career supporting immigrants and survivors, with a focus on empowerment through trauma-informed, person-centered, and community-based support for many years to come.

Shuaa Tajammul, Esq.

Shuaa Tajammul grew up in Montgomery County and was appointed to the Commission for Women in 2024. Shuaa is a family law attorney who litigates divorce, custody, child support, alimony, domestic violence, and related matters across the state and in the District of Columbia through her own firm. Shuaa received her undergraduate degree from the University of Maryland, College Park, and her law degree from the American University Washington College of Law.

Serving her community and being actively involved to make it better are important to Shuaa. Along with serving as a Commissioner on the CFW, she also serves as a Panel Chair for Montgomery County Commission on Common Ownership Communities. In that role, she adjudicates disputes between home and condominium owners and their respective condominium and homeowner's associations. Shuaa also serves on the Board of Directors for Leadership Montgomery, and the Theatre Consortium of Silver Spring. She previously served on the Board of Governors for the Maryland State Bar Association. In her free time, Shuaa enjoys reading and spending time with family and friends.