

VIRTUAL
WLB
Women's Legislative Briefing
2023

London Turner

London Turner is an honor roll student who leads the Clarksburg Coyotes basketball team. London is someone who can speak on random and interesting facts on the court and in the community. She always stands out among her peers and will light up a room with her smile. London was just featured in the Washington Post as she led her team to another big win. She also shared her meditation and calming tools she uses.