

Morgan Welch

Morgan Welch, LGPC, is a licensed graduate professional counselor (LGPC) in the state of Maryland who has a passion for working with kids and adolescents. She obtained her Bachelor's degree in Psychology at James Madison University and her Masters of Clinical Psychology at Towson University and has worked with kids and adolescents in inpatient, partial – hospitalization and intensive out-patient settings. She currently works for Aspen Grove Wellness in Hagerstown, MD, where she supports kids and adolescents in finding connections, moving towards healing and living an empowered life. She specializes in trauma treatment and utilizes EMDR, DBT, Polyvagal theory, and parts work to promote change. Morgan believes that every individual deserves to have a safe and regulating space in their life where they can be their authentic self.