

From Arlinda J. Clark, Member; Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Incorporated – Eta Pi Zeta Chapter
Members of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. who were in the suffragist movement.

Sally Wyatt Stewart - Former president of the National Association of Colored Women .

Maggie Lena Walker - first woman to charter a bank and an advocate for women's rights.

Nettie Langston Napier - prominent clubwoman in Nashville, and made important social connections across the South. She was treasurer of the National Association of Colored Women.

Fannie R. Givens - President of the Baptist Women's Missionary Convention and art teacher in the Louisville Colored Schools, became the first African-American Louisville policewoman.

Alice Dugged Carey - Cary was politically active, serving as the Georgia State Chairman of the Colored Woman's Committee, and as president of the Georgia State Federation of Coloured Women.