Leggett Seeks Applicants for Victim Services Advisory Board

County Executive Isiah Leggett is seeking applicants to fill two vacancies on the Victim Services Advisory Board. Two vacancies are for professional representatives from the mental health, legal, medical, dental and nursing professions. Members must be residents of Montgomery County.

The board advises the County Executive, County Council, and the Department of Health and Human Services, Behavioral Health and Crisis Services Division, which assists victims of sexual assault, domestic violence and other crimes. The board consists of 18 voting members. Members serve three-year terms and do not receive compensation.

The primary responsibility of the board is to review available services for crime victims and their families, determine needs and gaps in services for victims and their families, and recommend policy changes in County justice system and human service programs. The Board submits at least one report annually to the County Executive and the County Council on the progress of programs for crime victims and necessary improvements and on other relevant systems and policy issues concerning victims. The board also makes recommendations for appropriate funding allocations based on priorities and available resources, participates in developing an annual victim and family service plan, and acts as a local advocate for crime victim services programming.

The board meets the fourth Thursday evening of each month in Rockville. Also, an average of five hours per month of board-related committee work is expected.

Applicants of diverse backgrounds, professions, gender, geography, disability and ethnicity are encouraged to apply, and should write by November 21 to County Executive Isiah Leggett at the Executive Office Building, 101 Monroe St., Rockville, MD 20850 or send an e-mail to countyexecutive.boards@montgomerycountymd.gov. A brief resume, including home and work phone numbers, should be enclosed.

Members of County boards, committees and commissions may not serve on more than one such group at a time. Members of this Board are eligible for reimbursement for travel and dependent care for meetings attended. Leggett's appointments are subject to confirmation by the County Council. Applications of those selected for appointment are made public as part of the confirmation process.
