Leggett Seeks Applicants for Commission on People with Disabilities

County Executive Isiah Leggett is seeking applicants to fill ten vacancies on the Montgomery County Commission on People with Disabilities. Three vacancies must be filled by representatives of organizations or agencies that provide services to people with disabilities; six vacancies must be filled by representatives of people with disabilities; and one representative must be filled by a parent of a person with disabilities. Six incumbents are eligible to apply for reappointment (two organization representatives; three people with disabilities representatives and one parent representative).

The Commission advises the County Executive on programs and services concerning the nearly 190,000 residents with disabilities.

Members serve three-year terms without compensation, meeting the second Wednesday evening of each month at the Executive Office Building in Rockville. Members are expected to serve on at least one committee or work group that meets approximately once every month on its own schedule. For more information about the Commission, contact Betsy Luecking at 240-777-1256 voice/TTY or via email at betsy.luecking@montgomerycountymd.gov

Applicants should write by May 23 to County Executive Isiah Leggett at the Executive Office Building, 101 Monroe Street, Rockville, MD 20850 or send an e-mail to countyexecutive.boards@montgomerycountymd.gov. A brief resume, including home and work telephone numbers, should be enclosed detailing pertinent experience and business, civic or community group association.
