Leggett Seeks Applicants for Advisory Committee On Consumer Protection

County Executive Isiah Leggett is seeking applicants to fill two vacancies on the Advisory Committee on Consumer Protection. One of the vacancies is for a public-at-large member and one is for a business member from the Better Business Bureau or other County-wide association of merchants. The incumbents are eligible to apply for reappointment.

The nine-member committee advises the County's Office of Consumer Protection. Members serve three-year terms without compensation. Meetings are generally held the first Tuesday morning of each month in Rockville at 8:00 a.m.

Interested applicants should write by July 25 to County Executive Isiah Leggett at the Executive Office Building, 101 Monroe Street, Rockville, MD 20850 or send an e-mail to countyexecutive.boards@montgomerycountymd.gov. A brief resume including home and work telephone numbers should be enclosed. If applying for the business position, please state whether your business is a member of the Better Business Bureau or other County-wide association of merchants.

Leggett's appointments are subject to confirmation by the County Council. Applications of those selected for appointment are made public as part of the confirmation process. Members of County boards, committees and commissions may not serve on more than one such group at a time. Members of this Committee are eligible for reimbursement for travel and dependent care for meetings attended.
