Leggett Seeks Youth Applicants for Commission On Children and Youth

County Executive Isiah Leggett is seeking applicants under the age of 21 to fill seven vacancies on Montgomery County's Commission on Children and Youth. Four incumbents are eligible to reapply.

The 27-member Commission advises the County Executive, County Council, Department of Health and Human Services, and Board of Education on policies, programs and services which support children, youth and their families. Youth members serve one-year terms without compensation.

Meetings are held the second Wednesday evening of each month (except July and August) in Rockville. Members are expected to serve on committees of the Commission and these meetings are held immediately prior to the full Commission meetings.

Applicants should send a letter of interest stating why they would like to serve on the Commission to County Executive Isiah Leggett at the Executive Office Building, 101 Monroe Street, Rockville, MD 20850 or send an e-mail to countyexecutive.boards@montgomerycountymd.gov no later than March 6. Home address and telephone numbers, and the school that the applicant attends, should also be included. Members of County boards, committees and commissions may not serve on more than one such group at a time.

Members of this commission are eligible for reimbursement for travel and dependent care for meetings attended.

Leggett's appointments are subject to confirmation by the County Council. Applications of those selected for appointment are made public as part of the confirmation process.
