Leggett Seeks Applicants for Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission

Montgomery County Executive Isiah Leggett is seeking applicants to fill one vacancy on the Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission, for a full term expiring May 31, 2013. No more than two commissioners from Montgomery County may be from the same political party. The Democratic incumbent is expected to reapply.

Applicants must be registered to vote in Montgomery County and must reside in the Washington Suburban Sanitary District in Montgomery County. A list of the names of applicants will be available for public inspection until the County Executive makes appointments.

The six-member Commission, consisting of three members from Montgomery County and three from Prince George's County, works to regulate the public water supply, pollution control, plumbing and gas fittings, and wastewater treatment.

Members receive an annual compensation of $13,000. Scheduled meetings are held approximately every three weeks on Wednesdays for a full day. There are also special meetings, work sessions, budget briefings and public hearings scheduled as necessary. Appointees are required to complete a State public financial disclosure statement and to be interviewed by the County Attorney's Office to determine any conflict of interest.

Applicants should write by March 20 to County Executive Isiah Leggett, Executive Office Building, 101 Monroe Street, Rockville, MD 20850 or send an e-mail to countyexecutive.boards@montgomerycountymd.gov. Applicants should include a letter of interest and resume, and state their political party affiliation. Home and employment telephone numbers, and e-mail addresses should also be included.

Members of County boards, committees, and commissions may not serve on more than one such group at a time. Leggett's appointments are subject to confirmation by the County Council.
