Release ID: 09-048Media Contact: Beth Gochrach, 240.777.2528For Immediate Release: 4/10/2009Application Deadline: 5/1/2009Leggett Seeks Applicants for Board of Directors of Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture, Inc.

County Executive Isiah Leggett is seeking applicants to fill one partial term vacancy on the Board of Directors for Glen Echo Park Partnership for Arts and Culture, Inc.

The management plan for Glen Echo Park calls for the non-profit organization to manage and provide stewardship for Glen Echo Park and to assure its long-term success and sustainability as an important community institution. The Park is recognized for its vibrant mix of educational, cultural, environmental and recreational programs. It is a center for aspiring as well as accomplished artists. The Park serves approximately 450,000 visitors annually.

The Partnership's 18-member Board of Directors provides policy guidance to direct the affairs of the organization and its management, provides oversight for the programs, the site and the facilities, and will lead efforts to raise funds to support the mission of the organization.

Members serve three-year terms without compensation. Members of the Board are expected to attend regular monthly meetings held the second Wednesday evening of each month at Glen Echo Park. Members must also participate on at least one of the Board's committees.

Applicants of diverse backgrounds, professions, gender, geography, disability and ethnicity are encouraged to apply, and should write by May 1 to County Executive Isiah Leggett at the Executive Office Building, 101 Monroe Street, Rockville, MD 20850 or send an e-mail to countyexecutive.boards@montgomerycountymd.gov. A brief resume, including both home and work telephone numbers, should be included.

Members of County boards, committees, and commissions may not serve on more than one such group at a time. Leggett's appointments are subject to confirmation by the County Council. Applications of those selected for appointment are made public as part of the confirmation process.
