ALCOHOL AND OTHER DRUG ABUSE ADVISORY COUNCIL

- Created: -- Montgomery County Code, Sec. 24-41 (Bill 7-95, effective 7/11/95
re: Department of Health and Human Services Reorganization)
- Purpose: -- To identify local alcohol and other drug abuse program needs; review the state alcohol and other drug abuse plan; assist in the development of an annual County alcohol and other drug abuse plan; recommend appropriate allocation of funds to support alcohol and other drug abuse programs after considering other available funding sources; promote alcohol and other drug abuse programs; conduct or participate in one or more public forums each year concerning alcoholism and other drug abuse; and issue an annual report to the County Executive, the County Council, and the Director of the Department of Health and Human Services by October 1 of each year.
- Membership -- The Council consists of 16 voting members and 9 nonvoting members. The voting members include four members of the general public that reflect the geographic diversity of the County; an individual who is recovering from alcoholism or other drug abuse, a professional who treats alcoholism or other drug abuse; a professional who provides care to prevent alcoholism or other drug abuse, a person of high school age or younger, a person who represents the multi-cultural diversity of the County; a practicing physician; a pharmacist; a relative of an individual who is receiving care for alcoholism or other drug abuse; a member of the clergy; a member of the legal profession; a member of the County parent-teachers associations; and a member of the business community. The 9 nonvoting ex officio members are designated by (1) the County Executive, (2) the County Council, (3) the Health and Human Services Department, (4) the Police Department, (5) the Montgomery County Public School system, (6) the Board of License Commissioners, (7) the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, (8) the Mental Health Advisory Committee, and (9) the Victim Services Advisory Board.
- Financial Disclosure -- Not required.
- Terms -- Voting members serve three year terms. However, a third of the first members were appointed for a one year term, a third for a two year term and a third for a three year term.
- Meetings -- Second Thursday evening of each month, 7:00 PM.
- Staff -- Richard Kunkel, Department of Health and Human Services, 240-777-1310
Tracey Speelmans, Department of Health and Human Services, 240-777-4392

Leggett Seeks Applicants for Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Advisory Council

County Executive Isiah Leggett is seeking applicants to fill two vacancies on the Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Advisory Council. The vacancies are for a general public member representative (for a partial term expiring in 6/2010) and an individual recovering representative who is recovering from alcohol or other drug abuse.

The Council advises the Department of Health and Human Services, the County Executive, and the County Council in identifying local alcohol and other drug abuse program needs, assists in the development of plans to meet those needs, makes recommendations in the budget process relative to those programs, and promotes public education regarding alcoholism and other drug abuse. Members serve three-year terms without compensation and meet the second Thursday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in Rockville.

Applicants of diverse backgrounds, professions, gender, geography, disability and ethnicity are encouraged to apply, and should write by May 1 to County Executive Isiah Leggett at the Executive Office Building, 101 Monroe St., Rockville, MD 20850 or send an e-mail to countyexecutive.boards@montgomerycountymd.gov. Applicants should indicate the type of slot for which they are applying. A letter and brief resume that includes home and business telephone numbers should be enclosed.

Members of County boards, committees and commissions may not serve on more than one such group at a time. Members of this Council are eligible for reimbursement for travel and dependent care for meetings attended. Leggett's appointments are subject to confirmation by the County Council. Applications of those selected for appointment are made public as part of the confirmation process.

Leggett Seeks Applicants for Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Advisory Council

County Executive Isiah Leggett is seeking applicants to fill five vacancies on the Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse Advisory Council. The vacancies are for two general public member representatives (one of the vacancies is for a partial term expiring in 6/2010), one individual recovering representative who is recovering from alcohol or other drug abuse, one County parent-teachers associations representative and one legal profession representative. Three incumbents are eligible to apply for reappointment.

The Council advises the Department of Health and Human Services, the County Executive, and the County Council in identifying local alcohol and other drug abuse program needs, assists in the development of plans to meet those needs, makes recommendations in the budget process relative to those programs, and promotes public education regarding alcoholism and other drug abuse. Members serve three-year terms without compensation and meet the second Thursday of each month at 7:00 p.m. in Rockville.

Applicants of diverse backgrounds, professions, gender, geography, disability and ethnicity are encouraged to apply, and should write by April 3 to County Executive Isiah Leggett at the Executive Office Building, 101 Monroe St., Rockville, MD 20850 or send an e-mail to countyexecutive.boards@montgomerycountymd.gov. Applicants should indicate the type of slot for which they are applying. A letter and brief resume that includes home and business telephone numbers should be enclosed.

Members of County boards, committees and commissions may not serve on more than one such group at a time. Members of this Council are eligible for reimbursement for travel and dependent care for meetings attended. Leggett's appointments are subject to confirmation by the County Council. Applications of those selected for appointment are made public as part of the confirmation process.
