COUNCIL DECISION POINTS & COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATION

- Should resident supervisors in DOCR be eligible for the DROP?

DESCRIPTION/ISSUE

- The Bill would move resident supervisors working in DOCR from Group J of the Retirement Plan to Group E. This would make them eligible for the DROP currently available for sworn deputy sheriffs and uniformed correctional officers. The Bill would also clarify the application of credited service for employees who move from the GRIP to Group E.

SUMMARY OF KEY DISCUSSION POINTS

- What is the justification for making resident supervisors eligible for the DROP?
- Should the Council defer action until the Executive submits the collective bargaining agreements for FY23 next April?

MEMORANDUM

December 9, 2021

TO: County Council

FROM: Robert H. Drummer, Senior Legislative Attorney

SUBJECT: Expedited Bill 33-21, Personnel – Employee’s Retirement System – Group E – Amendments

PURPOSE: Final Action – vote expected

Committee recommendation (3-0): approval of the Bill as introduced.

Expedited Bill 33-21, Personnel – Employee’s Retirement System – Group E – Amendments, sponsored by then Lead Sponsor Council President Hucker at the Request of the Executive, was introduced on July 27, 2021.¹ A public hearing on the bill was held on September 14, 2021 and a Government Operations and Fiscal Policy Committee worksession was held on October 21, 2021.

Bill 33-21 would move resident supervisors working in DOCR from Group J of the Retirement Plan to Group E. This would make them eligible for the Deferred Retirement Option Plan (DROP) currently available for sworn deputy sheriffs and uniformed correctional officers. The Bill would also clarify the application of credited service for employees who move from the GRIP to Group E.

Background

The Executive requested this Bill to implement an Agreement with MCGEO that was rejected by the Council in May 2020 when the Council approved a same services operating budget during the early stages of the COVID-19 pandemic. DOCR resident supervisors are currently in Group J of the Employees’ Retirement Plan. Group J is a defined benefit retirement plan that is identical to the Group E defined benefit plan for sworn deputy sheriffs and uniformed correctional officers except for eligibility to enter the DROP. This Bill would move these resident supervisors from Group J to Group E and thereby make them eligible to enter the DROP.

The DROP for sworn deputy sheriffs and uniformed correctional officers was established in Bill 20-15 pursuant to an Agreement with MCGEO. The DROP for Group E is similar to the Plans previously established for Fire and Rescue Employees and Sworn Police Officers. Under the DROP, an eligible employee could choose to enter the DROP at full retirement. Once in the DROP, the employee would continue to work and receive his or her normal salary for up to 3 years. The employee would stop making retirement contributions and stop earning more service time for retirement while in the DROP. The County would pay the employee's retirement pension into a separate DROP account. The employee must choose investment options for these funds similar to the RSP. When the DROP period is over, the employee must leave County service and not return. The employee would receive the DROP account balance plus the pension the employee earned before entering the DROP with enhancements to the pension for cost-of-living adjustments the employee missed while in the DROP. As with the DROP for police and fire, the employee receives this enhanced retirement benefit in return for providing management with advance notice of retirement to aid management in succession planning. An employee in the DROP may leave County service prior to the completion of the 3-year DROP period.

The OMB fiscal impact report is based on an actuarial analysis of the additional cost to the County for permitting resident supervisors to enter the DROP under Group E (©8). The County's actuary estimated that the County's annual employer contribution for these 20 resident supervisors would increase $23,531 and the County's accrued liability would increase $167,760.

OLO estimated that Bill 33-21 would have a minimal impact on racial equity and social justice in the County (©10). OLO also estimated that the Bill would have an insignificant impact on the County's economy (©12).

Public Hearing

Both Director of the Office of Labor Relations, Jennifer Harling, representing the Executive (©21), and Mark Myrick, a DOCR resident supervisor and shop steward representing UFCW Local 1994, MCGEO (©22) supported the Bill. Both Ms. Harling and Mr. Myrick testified that the DOCR resident supervisors perform similar duties as the uniformed correctional officers. Neither speaker explained why the Bill was not sent over on April 1, 2021 along with the MCGEO collective bargaining agreement.

GO Worksession

Linda Herman, Executive Director of the Retirement Plans, Jennifer Harling, Director of the Office of Labor Relations, and Gino Renne, MCGEO participated in the discussion. The Committee reviewed the Bill, its fiscal impact, and the purpose of the DROP.

The Committee recommended (3-0) approval of the Bill as introduced.

Issues

1. Should the Council act on this Bill now even though it was not submitted by the Executive on April 1 as required by County law?

County Code § 33-108(g) provides:

- (g) In each proposed annual operating budget, the County Executive must describe any collective bargaining agreement or amendment to an agreement that is scheduled to take effect in the next fiscal year and estimate the cost of implementing that agreement. The employer must submit to the Council by April 1, unless extenuating circumstances require a later date, any term or condition of the collective bargaining agreement that requires an appropriation of funds, or the enactment or adoption of any County law or regulation, or which has or may have a present or future fiscal impact. If a later submission is necessary, the employer must specify the submission date and the reasons for delay to the Council President by April 1. The employer must expressly identify to the Council and the certified representative any term or condition that requires Council review. Each submission to the Council must include:
- (1) all proposed legislation and regulations necessary to implement the collective bargaining agreement;
 - (2) all changes from the previous collective bargaining agreement, indicated by brackets and underlines or a similar notation system; and
 - (3) all side letters or other extraneous documents that are binding on the parties.
- The employer must make a good faith effort to have the Council approve all terms of the final agreement that require Council review. (emphasis added)

The Executive submitted this proposed legislation to the Council on June 16, 2021 (©14) with no explanation as to why it was not submitted with the rest of the MCGEO Agreement for FY2022 on April 1, 2021. The April 1 deadline was added to the collective bargaining law to provide the Council the opportunity to review all of the labor agreements for the next fiscal year at one time and to make a global decision as to affordability of all increases in wages and benefits for all employees when adopting the operating budget for the next fiscal year. In this case, the Executive sent the legislation to the Council after the Council had adopted the FY2022 operating budget. It also was not mentioned in the changes to the MCGEO Agreement sent to the Council on April 1.

Council staff has not received any explanation for the late submission. The Council may act on this Bill at this time or may defer consideration until the Executive submits the MCGEO Agreement for FY2023.

2. What is the rationale for adding resident supervisors to the DROP?

Both Ms. Harling and Mr. Myrick testified that a resident supervisor performs similar duties performed by a uniformed correctional officer. The resident supervisor works with inmates who have been released from the detention center to a residential setting, such as a halfway house or monitors inmates who are on home confinement or at outside workplaces. The Class specifications for Resident Supervisors I, II, and III are at ©23. A uniformed correctional officer supervises inmates incarcerated at the detention center. Mr. Myrick testified that resident supervisors receive the same training as uniformed correctional officers.

The purpose of the DROP is to keep valued employees working beyond their normal retirement age and permit management to plan to recruit new employees to replace retirees on a timely basis. This assumes that employees will stay longer due to the DROP and that recruitment of new employees is time consuming and difficult. The Executive has not submitted any information to confirm or deny either of these assumptions. Since an employee is not eligible for the DROP until they reach normal retirement, an employee in the DROP must be working beyond their normal retirement date. However, it is not clear that each or most employees in the DROP would have retired at their normal retirement date absent eligibility for the DROP or how long they would work beyond their normal retirement date. Under the DROP, an employee must leave County employment after 3 years in the DROP but may leave before the 3-year maximum period. The fiscal impact statement shows that the DROP would increase the County's accrued pension liability for these 20 employees by $167,760. Committee recommendation (3-0): approve the Bill as introduced.

RE: Bill 33-21, Personnel - Employee's Retirement System - Group E - Amendments

Pursuant to the February 7, 2020, MOU with MCGEO, the County Executive is required to submit proposed Bill 33-21 to the Council for approval. The Bill would move resident supervisors working in DOCR from Group J of the Retirement Plan to Group E, making them eligible for the Deferred Retirement Option Plan currently available for sworn deputy sheriffs and uniformed correctional officers. The Council previously rejected this proposed legislation for FY21. But the County Executive is resubmitting it for FY 22 because the duration of the MOU is three years beginning July 1, 2020. There are no legal issues associated with this legislation.

Fiscal Impact Statement
Expedited Bill 33-21 Personnel – Employees’ Retirement System – Group E - Amendments

1. Legislative Summary.

Expedited Bill 33-21 adds Resident Supervisors to the list of positions eligible for participation in Group E of the Employees’ Retirement System (ERS) and allows those positions to participate in the DROP program for sworn deputy sheriffs and uniformed correctional officers.

2. An estimate of changes in County revenues and expenditures regardless of whether the revenues or expenditures are assumed in the recommended or approved budget. Includes source of information, assumptions, and methodologies used.

The proposed legislation would allow employees in the position of Resident Supervisors to move from their current participation in Group J to Group E in the ERS and permit their participation in the DROP program. The ERS retirement contribution rates are set annual by the System’s actuary based on an annual valuation as of June 30th each year. As the retirement contribution rates are set for FY22, it is anticipated that there will be a minimal impact on employer contributions. The change from Group J to Group E will impact the employer contributions for approximately 20 individuals and will also allow them to be eligible for DROP. The net impact of this change, as estimated by the actuarial analysis performed by GRS, the retirement plan’s actuary, is approximately $23,531 in additional County Contribution requirement. This net impact assumes the increased liability in Group E from additional members, who are also assumed to be eligible for DROP participation, and decreased liability in Group J from a reduced number of members who have shifted to Group E.

3. Revenue and expenditure estimates covering at least the next 6 fiscal years.

The current (FY21) County contribution rate for participants in Group E is 10.93%, while the Group J rate is 11.92%, and the rates for FY22 are 10.8% for Group E and 12.37% for Group J. These rates change annually, based on an actuarial analysis of the ERS. As the population in each Group adjusts slightly as a result of this legislation, it is anticipated that the rates of each Group will change, but the overall impact on County contributions between the two Groups will be minimal. There is no current estimate for these rates beyond the current estimates for FY22.

4. An actuarial analysis through the entire amortization period for each bill that would affect retiree pension or group insurance costs.

Actuarial analysis was performed to estimate the impact of the Resident supervisors shifting from Group J to Group E, which also includes eligibility for those members to participate in the DROP program. GRS estimated the overall change in accrued liability was $167,760, which includes the increased County’s contribution requirement of $23,531.

5. Later actions that may affect future revenue and expenditures if the bill authorizes future spending.

This bill does not authorize future spending.

6. An estimate of the staff time needed to implement the bill.

It is estimated that minimal staff time will be needed to update the affected employee records to participate in the appropriate retirement plan.

7. An explanation of how the addition of new staff responsibilities would affect other duties.

It is not anticipated that implementation will affect other duties.

8. An estimate of costs when an additional appropriation is needed.

No additional appropriation is necessary.

9. A description of any variable that could affect revenue and cost estimates.

Not applicable.

10. Ranges of revenue or expenditures that are uncertain or difficult to project.

Future actuarial valuations all have a degree of uncertainty, but it is not anticipated that this legislation would have a meaningful impact on those valuations.

11. If a bill is likely to have no fiscal impact, why that is the case.

This legislation does not add new participants overall to Group E or Group J, but adjusts eligibility and participation between the two Groups.

12. Other fiscal impacts or comments.

Not applicable.

Racial Equity and Social Justice (RESJ) Impact Statement

Office of Legislative Oversight

EXPEDITED PERSONNEL-EMPLOYEE'S RETIREMENT SYSTEM- BILL 33-21: GROUP E- AMENDMENTS

SUMMARY

OLO anticipates that Expedited Bill 33-21 will have a minimal impact on current racial inequities and social injustices (RESJ) in Montgomery County.

PURPOSE OF RESJ IMPACT STATEMENT

The purpose of RESJ impact statements is to evaluate the anticipated impact of legislation on racial equity and social justice in the County. Racial equity and social justice refer to a process that focuses on centering the needs, power, and leadership of communities of color and low-income communities with a goal of eliminating racial and social inequities.¹ Achieving racial equity and social justice usually requires seeing, thinking, and working differently to address the racial and social harms that have caused racial and social inequities.²

PURPOSE OF EXPEDITED BILL 33-21

The goal of the Bill is to reclassify and change the benefits for resident supervisors in the Department of Correction and Rehabilitation. Expedited Bill 33-21 was introduced on July 27, 2021. If enacted, the Bill would:

- Move resident supervisors in the Department of Correction and Rehabilitation from Group J of the Retirement Plan to Group E;
- Permit resident supervisors to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan for sworn deputy sheriffs and uniformed correctional officers;
- Clarify the application of credited service for employees who move from the GRIP to Group E; and
- Generally amend the retirement laws.³

ANTICIPATED RESJ IMPACTS

Since the scope of Expedited Bill 33-21's influence is estimated to impact a limited number of County employees, OLO anticipates that the bill would have a minimal impact on racial equity and social justice in the County. No changes in racial equity or social justice for County residents are anticipated under Expedited Bill 33-21.

CAVEATS

Two caveats to this racial equity and social justice impact statement should be noted. First, predicting the impact of legislation on racial equity and social justice is a challenging, analytical endeavor due to data limitations, uncertainty, and other factors. Second, this RESJ impact statement is intended to inform the legislative process rather than determine whether the Council should enact legislation. Thus, any conclusion made in this statement does not represent OLO's endorsement of, or objection to, the bill under consideration.

Economic Impact Statement

Office of Legislative Oversight

Expedited Bill 33-21

Personnel – Employee’s Retirement System – Group E – Amendments

SUMMARY

The Office of Legislative Oversight (OLO) anticipates that Expedited Bill 33-21 would have an insignificant impact on economic conditions in the County due to its minimal impact on County operating expenses.

BACKGROUND

If enacted, Expedited Bill 33-21 would make the following changes to the County’s Employee Retirement System:

- “(1) move resident supervisors in the Department of Correction and Rehabilitation from Group J to Group E;
- (2) permit resident supervisors to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan forsworn deputy sheriffs and uniformed correctional officers; [and]
- (3) clarify the application of credited service for employees who move from the GRIP to Group E.”¹

METHODOLOGIES, ASSUMPTIONS, AND UNCERTAINTIES

Changes to County employee compensation can affect government spending. An increase in personnel costs may present an opportunity cost in terms of forgone revenues that the County could use to provide services to residents. Such an opportunity cost may affect residents and private organizations based in the County in terms of the Council’s priority economic indicators.² However, the Fiscal Impact Statement for Expedited Bill 33-21 concludes that the changes to the County’s Employee Retirement System would have a minimal impact on County contributions. For this reason, OLO believes that enacting the Bill would have an insignificant impact on economic conditions in the County. The claims made in subsequent sections are based on this conclusion.

IMPACTS

WORKFORCE ■ TAXATION POLICY ■ PROPERTY VALUES ■ INCOMES ■ OPERATING COSTS ■ PRIVATE SECTOR CAPITAL INVESTMENT ■ ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT ■ COMPETITIVENESS

Businesses, Non-Profits, Other Private Organizations

OLO anticipates that enacting Expedited Bill 33-21 would have insignificant impacts on private organizations in the County in terms of the Council's priority indicators.

Residents

Enacting Expedited Bill 33-21 likely would impact very few residents. According to the Fiscal Impact Statement, the "change from Group J to Group E will impact the employer contributions for approximately 20 individuals and will also allow them to be eligible for DROP." It is possible that some of these individuals may reside in the County. Given the small number of potential residents impacted by the changes to the Employee Retirement System, OLO anticipates that enacting Expedited Bill 33-21 would have insignificant impacts on residents in terms of the Council's priority indicators.

Subject: Cost Impact of Employee Transfer from Group J to Group E

Dear Ms. Herman:

As requested, we have measured the cost impact to the Montgomery County Employees' Retirement System (ERS) of proposals to transfer a group of active employees from Group J to Group E.

Our analysis of this proposal includes the following data, assumptions and methods:

- A list of the employees subject to the transfer (19 who were in Group J as of July 1, 2020 and 8 employees who were reported in Group E as of July 1, 2020 but who should have been reported in Group J).
- The estimated cost impact is measured as of July 1, 2020, which calculates the fiscal year 2022 County contribution. The actual transfer would be effective July 1, 2021.
- The change in unfunded liability is amortized over a 20-year period as a level percentage of pay.
- Assets are assumed to be transferred from Group J to Group E, such that the funded ratio (based on the market value of assets) of Group J is the same before and after the transfer.

Exhibit I contains a summary of the impact of the transfer and Exhibits II and III contain the detailed calculations of the cost impact on Groups E and J of the transfer. The exhibits first restate the results as of July 1, 2020 based on the 8 Group E employees being correctly classified as Group J employees (Updated Baseline) and then present the results based on the proposed transfer (Impact).

Summary of Results

The transfer of employees from Group J to Group E is expected to slightly increase the overall actuarial accrued liability and County contribution requirement. Although the benefits and assumptions for Group E and J are for the most part the same, members of Group E are eligible for DROP whereas members of Group J are not. The expected additional cost of the Group E DROP results in the slight overall increase in cost.

(15)

Following is a summary of the assets that would be transferred from Group J to Group E in addition to the transfer of liabilities between the plans.

	Group J
	Baseline	Updated Baseline	Impact
Number of Active Members	136	144	117

Montgomery County Council

Testimony on behalf of County Executive Marc Elrich on Expedited Bill 33-21, Personnel -
Employee's Retirement System - Group E – Amendments

September 14, 2021

1:30 p.m.

Good afternoon Council President Hucker and Councilmembers, my name is Jennifer Harling, Director of the Office of Labor Relations. I am here on behalf of the County Executive in support of Expedited Bill 33-21, Personnel - Employee's Retirement System - Group E – Amendments.

The County Executive is committed to treating employees equitably for the work they perform and was pleased to offer Expedited Bill 33-21 for introduction. Bill 33-21E affords the same retirement benefit to resident supervisors and other employee classes performing similar work, such as Correctional Specialists.

In broad terms, the Resident Supervisor (RS) and Correctional Specialist (CS) classes of positions have similar, though not identical, responsibilities for and interactions with the offender-resident populations and correctional facility personnel. Resident Supervisors and Correctional Specialists work with individuals remanded to the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (DOCR). Resident Supervisors work within a residential housing unit (like a halfway house), and Correctional Officers working within a confined housing unit (incarcerated individuals serving time locally, being transferred to State facility to serve time, or waiting for a case to go to court). Both positions monitor and counsel offenders-residents on such matters as substance abuse treatment and rehabilitation, facility-based rules and protocols, community and family reintegration, and behavioral reform and mental health services. Both positions may require some confrontation with offenders-residents in enforcing facility and programmatic rules and regulations. In sum, while there are specific duties and functions attendant to each class of positions, the "law enforcement" categorization and functions appear to apply to both classes in more-or-less equal measure.

Accordingly, as outlined in the agreement between the County and MCGEO, the responsibilities of Resident Supervisors are sufficiently similar to other Uniformed Correctional Officers as defined by County Code Section 33-38A(c)(1) to justify the inclusion of Resident Supervisors in Retirement Group E and the Deferred Retirement Option Plan (DROP). Ten employees in the resident supervisor position would be eligible for DROP in the next three years, with five eligible currently.
Thank you.

Testimony Of Mark Myrick, Resident Supervisor at DOCR on

Expedited Bill 33-21 Personnel - Employee's Retirement System - Group E – Amendments

Good morning, my name is Mark Myrick and I've been a resident supervisor in the Montgomery County Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation for the past 19 years and I have been with the DOCR for a total of 21 years. I am also a shop steward with our union, UFCW Local 1994 MCGEO.

I am testifying here today on behalf of myself and my fellow officers at DOCR who've been excluded from the County Employee Retirement System's Deferred Retirement Option Plan (DROP) program.

The DROP program was instituted to help retain experienced staff and ensure continuity of operations. For years, other sworn officers in the County have been able to participate in the DROP program. Just a few short years ago, the County moved some of the officers at DOCR into the program but excluded DOCR's resident supervisors.

Our exclusion is unfair and a fix to this oversight is long overdue.

Bill 33-21, Personnel - Employee's Retirement System - would bring parity with other DOCR officers in retirement options. There is no justifiable reason to omit resident supervisors from this program. We must participate in the same training as other DOCR officers. We go to the same training academy, have the same continuing education requirements, have the same physical fitness requirements, and work with the same population.

In fact, our jobs require more public interaction than other DOCR officers, as we are required to monitor persons on home confinement and to visit outside workplaces to check on inmates. We also cover electronic monitoring and while still doing much of the same work as other DOCR officers in house.

Bill 33-21 would correct the unjust exclusion of resident supervisors and, to the county's benefit, is actually cost neutral.

I urge you to pass Bill 33-21. Thank you.

CLASS SPECIFICATION

Code No. 003251
Grade 18

RESIDENT SUPERVISOR I

DEFINITION OF CLASS:

This is front line entry/developmental level correctional work controlling, accounting for and providing guidance to a segment of an offender-resident population. Most contacts are with coworkers, offender-residents, their families, employers and others to exchange routine information about rules, policies, procedures and the like. There is also contact with police officers, probation officers, personnel at the Montgomery County Detention Center (MCDC) and Montgomery County Correctional Facility (MCCF), maintenance and service personnel (County employees and contractors) and others. Most contacts center on the exchange of routine information. However, there is also exchange of non-routine information with contacts concerning serious infractions of rules, transports back to a secure facility, escapes and other significant events. Most contacts are cooperative and intended to facilitate successful integration of offender-residents into the community, but some are confrontational. Direct, one-on-one care giving and assistance are provided to the offender-residents as needed throughout the day or as deemed appropriate, and range from provision of such routine services as urine sample collection, Alco Sensor testing and disbursing monies to detailed questions on and provision of individualized assistance, attention or guidance on work-family, health, substance abuse or other problems they are confronting on a daily basis, guidance on anger management or anti-social behavior, and other services/help.

Initial employment requires an employee to undergo on-the-job and formal classroom training. During this period, employees are given duties of a varying nature and increasing difficulty and responsibility. Ultimately, employees in this class are responsible for the accountability and daily control of a large group (unit) of offender-residents, mainly at the Pre-Release Center (PRC), which is a correctional facility without significant physical control measures. Other employees supervise offender-residents who live at their place of residence and are electronically monitored, or provide support services but also interact daily with offender-residents on a variety of matters. Employees in this class receive instructions or guidance from the supervisor or a higher grade employee as they encounter new problems or non-routine situations. They perform their daily work in accordance with guidelines, using judgment, as much of their work is accomplished after hours without supervisory presence. Most problems are resolved in keeping with established procedures and guidelines, which are extensive and need to be mastered by the employee. The complexity of this class is realized by the nature and level of the employees' problem solving and decision-making in the dual role they play as a rules enforcer and a guidance provider working with offender-residents who are not restricted by conventional physical barriers, may be restive, unmotivated or otherwise troubled, and for whom adjustment to community life is difficult to achieve. Employees in this class solve problems and make decisions as learners, relying largely on facts, precedents and training as they further develop their knowledge and skills. The major impact of this class of work is realized by the accountability for and control exercised over offender-residents coupled with the direct daily services and guidance provided. Work is evaluated in-progress and upon completion through reports, results and other measures for timely and appropriate control and services, for effectiveness in guidance of offender-residents, and for working effectively with other contacts.

Employees in this class are continuously exposed to bodily fluids through urine samples and Alco Sensor testing. There is continuing exposure to aggressive, verbally abusive or potentially hostile people in an uncontrolled environment. Good 'situational awareness' is required to reduce risk to self. This class involves considerable standing, a good amount of walking, sitting, observing, bending, reaching and finger manipulation to provide service at 'the desk', to conduct room inspections, etc. There is some driving required. There is occasional lifting of materials or resident property weighing twenty (20) to fifty (50) pounds.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES: (Illustrative Only)

- Checks for proper authorization for release of offender-residents to the community (work, school, training, counseling, etc.) and effects the releases.
- Administers Alco Sensor test and collects urine samples for drug screening.
- Conducts personal, room, vehicle, and facility searches and offender-resident counts.
- Assigns and inspects facility clean-up assignments.
- Distributes medication per medical staff instructions.
- Disburses and receives offender-resident monies.
- Verifies offender-resident location in community through telephone checks and on-site visits.
- Determines necessity of making formal charges for major infractions (through a 75B) or handling infractions through such other measures as assigning curfew or providing guidance.
- Conducts (75B) adjustment hearings.
- Drives offender-residents to court, medical appointments, MCDC, and other destinations.
- Provides guidance and 'contract monitoring' for assigned offender-residents covering such areas as work, family, substance abuse, leisure, health, finances as well as anger management and possible depression.
- Provides crisis intervention for offender-residents by defusing potentially threatening and disruptive concerns of both offender-residents and, as necessary, their family members or other persons present.
- Attends and participates with other employees in weekly meetings to learn more about and discuss therapeutic strategies and, as one's programmatic knowledge and guidance skills are developed, provides recommendations on individualized treatment plans for selected offender-residents.
- Supervises 'weekend turn-arounds', helps with intakes.
- Leads morning meetings.
- Scores psychological tests (MMPI, Tennessee Self-Concept, etc).
- Supervises facility evacuation drills and conducts emergency systems testing.
- Interviews offender-resident's family and reviews Pre-Release program with them.
- Secures and inventories property belonging to offender-residents whose program participation has been discontinued.
- Maintains and compiles statistics for monthly reports.
- Takes messages for offender-residents from various people, including attorneys, doctors and employers.
- As necessary, helps offender-residents with their reading and writing in job searches and other circumstances.

- Attends and participates in staff training in such areas as CPR, First Aid, and cognitive behavioral treatment skills.
- Testifies in court.
- Files an application for an arrest warrant with the District Court Commissioner when an offender-resident escapes.
- As assigned, staffs the front desk, attends to daily grounds, facility maintenance, equipment and security issues, MSDS logs, and performs related service-support work.
- Performs related duties as required.

- Skill in problem solving to select, organize and logically process relevant information (verbal, numerical or abstract) to solve a problem in the assigned program area(s). This includes the ability to recognize problems and identify relevant information.
- Skill in the exercise of mature judgment to control offenders individually and in groups through the authority of the position of Resident Supervisor and one's own people skills. This includes being a 'strong' observer of people and situations.

- Skill in communications to understand verbal information (including facts, instructions, descriptions, and ideas) and to verbally express such information so that others will understand and, in some cases, will comply, or be persuaded. This includes good skill as a listener as well as the ability to bridge some language barriers and to encourage effective oral communication by offender-residents, their family members, etc.
- Interpersonal skills to interact successfully in a customer-service oriented, businesslike manner with the full range of personal contacts.
- Skill in multitasking to attend to a number of inputs and provide an array of services (such as Alco Sensor testing, cash disbursement and guidance) to individuals on demand while maintaining 'situational awareness.'
- Ability to acquire knowledge of and ability to interpret and apply core principles and generally-accepted standards and approaches of community-based corrections.
- Ability to acquire knowledge of and ability to interpret and apply specific laws and PRRS Division guidelines covering the population that is overseen.
- Ability to develop skill in providing advice and guidance in areas that offender-residents are confronting on a daily basis, such as work-family, health, substance abuse, anger management and anti-social behavior.
- Ability to develop skill in recognizing critical indicators of personal crisis and in selecting and applying basic crisis intervention techniques.
- Willingness to work with offender-residents in a community-based corrections environment.
- Willingness and ability to report to work for emergencies and to meet operational staffing requirements.

Employees in this class exercise discretion in drawing upon experience and seasoned judgment to identify, select, and apply an effective approach to behavioral problems and a range of other issues that arise in their daily work with an offender-resident population of diverse cultural, socioeconomic and educational backgrounds, varied personalities and perspectives and other characteristics that affect behavior. The complexity of this class is realized by the nature and level of the employees' problem solving and decision making in the dual role that they play as a rules enforcer and a guidance provider working with offender residents who are not restricted by conventional physical barriers, may be resistive, unmotivated or otherwise troubled, and for whom adjustment to community life is difficult to achieve. RESIDENT SUPERVISOR III

DEFINITION OF CLASS:

This is front line full performance level correctional work providing leadership, technical supervision and work direction to staff as well as direct responsibilities controlling, accounting for and providing guidance to a segment of an offender-resident population. The work occurs 24/7/365 on each of three shifts, and on most shifts operates independently without onsite higher supervisory and managerial support. During those times, the position serves as the sole lead for custody and facility task assignments, the sole lead for staffing issues including those arising from unscheduled leave and call-ins which may require arranging to fill posts on subsequent shifts with on duty staff or other staff recruited from home, and the sole lead for emergency security and facility issues. Further, the work fully incorporates the role of the Field Training Officer as part of its core responsibilities. Most contacts are with co-workers, offender-residents, their families, employers and others to exchange routine information about rules, policies, procedures and the like. There is also contact with police officers, probation officers, personnel at the Montgomery County Detention center (MCDC) and Montgomery County Correctional Facility (MCCF), maintenance and service personnel (County employees and contractors) and others. Most contacts center on the exchange of routine information. However, there is also exchange of non-routine information concerning serious infractions of rules, transports back to a secure facility, escapes and other significant events. There is also the needed ability to adapt policy, procedures, and practices to new situations that come up in the community-based program, and to lead staff to implement these adaptations. Most contacts are cooperative and intended to facilitate successful integration of offender-residents into the community, but some are confrontational. Direct, one-on-one care giving and assistance are provided to the offender-residents as needed throughout the day or as deemed appropriate, and range from provision of such routine services as urine sample collection, Alco Sensor testing and disbursing of monies to detailed questions on and provision of individualized assistance, attention or guidance on work-family, health, substance abuse or other problems they are confronting on a daily basis, guidance on anger management or anti-social behavior, and other services help.

Employees in this class are responsible for both the overall safe and orderly running of a shift at the Pre-Release Center and the accountability and daily control of a large group (unit) of offender-residents. Living at the Pre-Release Center (PRC), which is a correctional facility without significant physical control measures and those living on Home Confinement. The latter group of individuals is monitored electronically and report to the PRC three times weekly at home. In addition to those living on Home Confinement, approximately 15% of the residents living at the PRC are also monitored electronically using GPS tracking technology. Employees in this class are under general supervision, independently planning and performing their daily work consistent with guidelines, as most of their work is accomplished after hours without supervisory presence. Most problems are resolved in keeping with established guidelines and procedures, which are extensive and have been mastered by the employee who uses mature judgment to select, adapt and apply them. Employees in this class will assume responsibility for ensuring that the subsequent shift is properly staffed according to the Division's practices and in accordance with accreditation requirements which heretofore had been the responsibility of higher-level managers. Employees in this class exercise discretion in drawing upon experience and seasoned judgment to identify, select, and apply an effective approach to behavioral problems and a range of other issues that arise in their daily work with an offender-resident population of diverse cultural, socioeconomic and educational backgrounds, varied personalities and perspectives and other characteristics that affect behavior. Employees in this class are exposed to bodily fluids through urine samples and Alco Sensor testing. There is exposure to aggressive, verbally abusive or potentially hostile people in an uncontrolled environment. Good 'situational awareness' is required to reduce risk to self. This class involves considerable standing, a good amount of walking, sitting, observing, bending, reaching and finger manipulation to provide service at the desk area, to conduct room inspections, etc. There is some driving required. There is occasional lifting of materials or resident property weighing twenty (20) to fifty (50) pounds.
