1 Sec. 1. Chapter 47 is amended by adding Section 47-9:

2 47-9. Enforcement: Removal of Illegally Sold Goods.

3 (a) The Department of Permitting Services, the Police Department, and any 4 other agency of County government designated by the Chief
 5 Administrative Officer, may enforce this Chapter.

6 (b) If, after receiving a warning from an enforcing agency, a person
 7 continues to sell or offer to sell any goods in violation of this Chapter, 8 the enforcing agency may seize the goods and take them to a designated 9 County storage facility. When giving a warning under this Section, an 10 enforcing agent may require the recipient of the warning to furnish 11 adequate personal identification. When seizing any goods, the 12 enforcing agent must inform the holder of the goods how, where, and 13 when the goods can be claimed.

14 (c) The owner of any goods seized under this Section may claim them 15 within 3 days if the goods are perishable, and within 15 days if the 16 goods are not perishable, by:

17 (1) furnishing proof of ownership of the goods to the enforcing 18 agency at the storage facility, and

19 (2) paying a storage fee set by regulation under method (3) in an 20 amount sufficient to reimburse the cost to the County of handling, 21 transporting, and storing the goods.

22 (d) Alternatively, the County must return the goods without payment of a 23 storage fee if the owner, during the time period provided in subsection 24 (c), furnishes proof of ownership of the goods and shows that:

25 (1) the goods were properly offered for sale at the site where they 26 were seized; and

27 (2) when the goods were seized the owner held a valid license to sell 28 the goods under this Chapter.

29 (e) However, the County may retain the goods if they will be needed as 30 evidence in any hearing on an alleged violation of this Chapter 31 involving the sale or attempted sale of the goods. In that case, the 32 owner may reclaim the seized goods by paying the maximum fine
 33 which applies to the alleged violation and any storage fee due.

34 ~~[(e)]~~ (f) Until goods seized under this Section are claimed by their owner, the 35 County must take reasonable care to protect the goods and keep them in 36 the same condition as they were when seized. However, the County is 37 not responsible for spoilage of any perishable goods.

38 ~~[(f)]~~ (g) If goods seized under this Section are not claimed under subsection
 39 (c) or returned under subsection (d), the goods have been abandoned
 40 and the County may:

- 41 (1) sell them to any government agency or private party through an 42 informal process specified by regulation under method (2);
- 43 (2) donate the goods to any charitable organization; or
- 44 (3) destroy the goods in any lawful manner.

45 ~~[(g)]~~ (h) The owner of any goods seized under this Section must not attempt 46 to collect any payment for the goods from the person from whom the 47 goods were seized unless the owner had, before the goods were seized, 48 reported the goods as stolen to any law enforcement agency.
