MEMORANDUM

July 8, 2011

TO: County Council

FROM: Robert H. Drummer, Senior Legislative Attorney

Bill 19-11, Personnel – Collective Bargaining – Public Access, sponsored by the Council President on recommendation of the Organizational Reform Commission, was introduced on June 14, 2011. A Government Operations and Fiscal Policy Committee worksession is tentatively scheduled for July 18 at 9:30 a.m.

Bill 19-11 would require the Council to hold a public hearing on each collective bargaining agreement submitted to it, change certain dates in the collective bargaining process, and require public disclosure of each party’s initial bargaining position on major economic provisions. The Council delayed introducing this Bill until after finalizing the FY12 Budget because these process changes, if enacted, could not take effect until collective bargaining for FY13 begins in the fall.

Background

In its report to the Council dated January 31, 2011, the Organizational Reform Commission (ORC), in Recommendation #18, recommended amending the County collective bargaining laws to require the Council to hold a public hearing on each collective bargaining agreement submitted to it, change certain dates, and require public disclosure of each party’s initial bargaining position on major economic provisions.

The full text of the recommendation is below.

Public Accountability in Collective Bargaining

Collective bargaining sessions with County government employee unions are held in meetings closed to the public. The proposals and counter-proposals made by each side are never made public. If the parties reach impasse and invoke interest arbitration, the evidentiary hearing conducted by the arbitrator must be closed to the public. The terms of a negotiated agreement or an arbitrator’s award are not made public until they are sent to the Council for approval. The intent of this confidentiality is to encourage the parties to speak freely without fear of their statements being used against them. Attendance at negotiating sessions by members of the public and the news media could inhibit the free and open discussion necessary to resolve disputes. However, open meetings could also inhibit the parties from making unrealistic demands and statements.

Collective bargaining in open meetings has been tried in Maryland. In 1981, the Carroll County Board of Education adopted a resolution that all collective bargaining meetings with the union representing public school teachers would be conducted in public. The union challenged the Board’s resolution in Court, alleging that it was a failure to bargain in good faith. Despite the authority to conduct closed meetings to discuss collective bargaining in the Maryland Open Meetings Law, the Court of Appeals held that the Board could insist on open meetings without violating the duty to bargain in good faith. See, Carroll County Education Association, Inc. v. Board of Education of Carroll County, 294 Md. 144 (1982).

More recently, Washington County Public Schools required the school unions to participate in open collective bargaining sessions in 2006. The parties eventually agreed to ground rules for open bargaining that provide for a closed session at the beginning of each meeting to explore new ideas, followed by an open meeting. All proposals and counter-proposals were made public in the open meeting.

We do not believe that all collective bargaining sessions should be open to the public. The parties must be able to speak freely without fear of each statement being published in the news media in order to negotiate in good faith. However, the current system eliminates almost all public input into the collective bargaining process.

We recommend a modest increase in public accountability that would continue to permit the parties to speak freely during negotiations.

Specifically, we recommend that:

1. The initial proposals and counter-proposals in collective bargaining negotiations from both parties should be publicly posted on the County’s website for public comment. The negotiated collective bargaining ground rules with each County employee union should contain a final date for each party to submit all of their proposals for bargaining. We recommend posting the positions of each party, as of that date. This could be done by the Executive without changing current law or, alternatively, by the Council amending County law.

1 Reservation of Organizational Reform Commissioner Susan Heltemes: Historically, the integrity of the collective bargaining process has functioned under stringent guidelines that rely on the integrity of all persons involved in the negotiations to maintain confidentiality to the process until a final product/agreement is attained. The final product is open to the public and hearings are held by the Montgomery County Council. Initial disclosures of proposals would likely establish unrealistic expectations not only for management, but also for employees since initial proposals are usually not where the negotiations come down at the conclusion of bargaining. If opening proffers were open to the public, it is likely that outside input could obstruct the bargaining process and interfere with tight timelines and strategy. Such obstruction could alter the negotiating process and ultimately end in more arbitration and deterioration of what has become a respected form of negotiation for our public sector employees. It is important to note that Park and Planning employees, as well as HOC, Montgomery College and MCPS employees, function under state guidelines that are different than those for the firefighters, police and MCGEO. Furthermore, it seems unlikely that making opening proposals from the County and unions prior to negotiating would actually result in savings. Such proposed savings are mere conjecture and not worth the effort of upsetting a time honored process that works.
2. The Council should conduct a public hearing on all collective bargaining agreements before the Council’s annual budget hearings. In order to accommodate this additional public hearing, we recommend that the statutory time periods for declaring impasse and completing arbitration be moved back by two weeks. The Council would have to amend current law to change these dates. The Council has the current authority to hold a public hearing on collective bargaining agreements, but there is often not enough time to do this.

Executive’s Response

In a memorandum to the Council President dated February 21, 2011, the Executive responded to each of the 28 recommendations in the ORC report. The Executive did not take a position on this recommendation. He stated:

18. Make the collective bargaining process more transparent and increase opportunities for public input on
   (a) initial proposals; and
   (b) the end of the process.

The ORC report included several recommendations concerning the collective bargaining process. Since we are in the midst of bargaining with all three of our employee unions, I do not think it is appropriate to comment on the Commission’s recommendations at this time.

Bill 19-11, sponsored by the Council President on recommendation of the ORC would implement ORC Recommendations #18.

Chapter 33, Personnel and Human Resources
Sections 33-80, 33-81, 33-108, and 33-153

The County Council for Montgomery County, Maryland approves the following Act:
Sec. 1. Sections 33-80, 33-81, 33-108, and 33-153 are amended as follows:

33-80. Collective bargaining.

(d) Time limits. Collective bargaining [shall commence] must begin no later than November 1 [preceding a] before any fiscal year for which there is no contract between the employer and the certified representative and [shall] should be concluded by January [20] 6. The employer must publish the certified representative’s initial proposal on economic terms and the employer’s initial counter-proposal on economic terms on an internet site accessible to the public within 10 days after the employer’s initial counter-proposal is made. The resolution of an impasse in collective bargaining [shall] must be completed by [February 1] January 18. These time limits may be waived only by prior written consent of the parties.

(g) Submission to Council. A ratified agreement [shall be] is binding on the employer and the certified representative, and [shall] must be reduced to writing and executed by both parties. In each proposed annual operating budget, the County Executive [shall] must describe any collective bargaining agreement or amendment to an agreement that is scheduled to take effect in the next fiscal year and estimate the cost of implementing that agreement. Any term or condition of a collective bargaining agreement which requires an appropriation of funds or enactment, repeal, or modification of a County law [shall] must be timely submitted to the County Council by the employer by [April 1] March 15, unless extenuating circumstances require a later date. If a later submission is necessary, the employer [shall] must specify the submission date and the reasons for delay to the Council President by [April 1] March 15. The employer [shall] must make a good faith effort to have such term or condition implemented by Council action. Each submission to the Council [shall] must include:

1. all proposed legislation and regulations necessary to implement the collective bargaining agreement;

2. all changes from the previous collective bargaining agreement, indicated by brackets and underlines or a similar notation system; and

3. all side letters or other extraneous documents that are binding on the parties.

(h) Council review. The Council must hold a public hearing to allow the parties and the public to testify on the agreement. On or before May 1, the County Council [shall] must indicate by resolution its [intention] intent to appropriate funds for or otherwise implement the agreement or its [intention] intent not to do so, and [shall] must state its reasons for any intent to reject any part of the agreement. The Council, by majority vote taken on or before May 1, may defer the May 1 deadline to any date not later than May 15. If the Council indicates its [intention] intent to reject any part, it [shall] must designate a representative to meet with the parties and present the Council's views in their further negotiations. This representative [shall] must also participate fully in stating the Council's position in any ensuing impasse procedure. The parties [shall] must thereafter meet as promptly as possible and attempt to negotiate an agreement acceptable to the Council. Either [of the parties] party may initiate the impasse procedure [set forth] described in Section 33-81. The results of the negotiation or impasse procedure [shall] must be submitted to the Council on or before May 10. If the Council has deferred the May 1 deadline, that action automatically postpones the May 10 deadline by the same number of days.

33-81. Impasse procedure.

(a) Before September 10 of any year in which the employer and a certified representative bargain collectively, they shall choose an impasse neutral either by agreement or through the processes of the American Arbitration Association. The impasse neutral [shall be required to] must be available during the period from January [20] Q to [February 1] January 18. Fees, costs and expenses of the impasse neutral [shall] must be shared equally by the employer and the certified representative.

(b) (1) During the course of collective bargaining, either party may declare an impasse and request the services of the impasse neutral. If the parties have not reached agreement by January [20] 6, an impasse exists.

(a) Collective bargaining must begin no later than November 1 before the beginning of a fiscal year for which there is no agreement between the employer and the certified representative, and must be finished on or before [February 1] January 15. The employer must publish the certified representative's initial proposal on economic terms and the employer's initial counter-proposal on economic terms on an internet site accessible to the public within 10 days after the employer's initial counter-proposal is made.

* * *

e) (1) During the course of collective bargaining, either party may declare an impasse and request the services of the mediator/arbitrator, or the parties may jointly request those services before an impasse is declared. If the parties do not reach an agreement by [February 1] January 15, an impasse exists.
Any issue regarding the negotiability of any bargaining proposal must be referred to the Labor Relations Administrator for an expedited determination.

(3) If the mediator/arbitrator finds, in the mediator/arbitrator's sole discretion, that the parties are at a bona fide impasse, or as of [February 1] January 15 when an impasse is automatically reached, whichever occurs earlier, the dispute must be submitted to binding arbitration.

(f) (1) If binding arbitration is invoked, the mediator/arbitrator must require each party to submit a final offer, which must consist either of a complete draft of a proposed collective bargaining agreement or a complete package proposal, as the mediator/arbitrator directs. If only complete package proposals are required, the mediator/arbitrator must require the parties to submit jointly a memorandum of all items previously agreed on.

* * *
(3) On or before February 15, the mediator/arbitrator must select, as a whole, the more reasonable of the final offers submitted by the parties. The mediator/arbitrator must not compromise or alter a final offer. The employer must expressly identify to the Council and the certified representative any term or condition that requires Council review. Each submission to the Council must include:
all proposed legislation and regulations necessary to implement the collective bargaining agreement;

(2) all changes from the previous collective bargaining agreement, must be completed by [February 1] January 17. These time limits may be waived or extended by written agreement of the parties. The employer must publish the certified representative's initial proposal on economic terms and the employer's initial counter-proposal on economic terms on an internet site accessible to the public within 10 days after the employer's initial counter-proposal is made.

certified representative bargain collectively, they must choose an impasse neutral, either by agreement or through the processes of the American Arbitration Association. The impasse neutral must be available from January [15] 2 to [February 1] January 17. The impasse neutral's fees and expenses must be shared equally by the employer and the certified representative.

(e) During the course of collective bargaining, either party may declare an impasse and request the services of the impasse neutral, or the parties may jointly request those services before declaring an impasse. If the parties have not agreed on a collective bargaining agreement by January [15] 2, an impasse exists by operation of law.

* * *

(i) On or before [February 1] January 17, unless that date is extended by written agreement of the parties, the impasse neutral must select the final offer that, as a whole, the impasse neutral judges to be the more reasonable.

* * *

(l) In each proposed annual operating budget, the County Executive must describe any collective bargaining agreement or amendment to an agreement that is scheduled to take effect in the next fiscal year and estimate the cost of implementing that agreement. The annual operating budget must include sufficient funds to pay for the items in the parties' final agreement. The employer must expressly identify to the Council by [April 1] March 15, unless extenuating circumstances require a later date, all terms and conditions in the agreement that:

(3) require the enactment or adoption of any County law or regulation, or
(4) which have or may have a present or future fiscal impact.
