Per Montgomery County Code Section 52-18P, a tax credit must be allowed against the County Tax imposed, for each taxable year, on a nonprofit swim club that uses its facility exclusively to provide a recreational outlet for a local community. The property tax credit will apply to County Taxes only (General County Tax and Special Service Area Taxes).

An application for this property tax credit must be completed and filed annually with the Treasury Division by May 1 preceding the taxable year (e.g., May 1, 2006 for Levy Year 2006).

Required Items: In the first year that the nonprofit swim club applies for the tax credit, and in any subsequent years if there has been a change to 1) or 2) below, the swim club must provide Montgomery County, with copies of the following:

- 1) Articles of Incorporation.
- 2) A current Certificate in Good Standing from the State of Maryland, Department of Assessments and Taxation, 301 West Preston Street, Baltimore Maryland 21201
Tel# 888-246-5941

By signing this application below, I certify under oath and affirmation, subject to the penalties provided by law, that this property is a nonprofit swim club that uses its facility exclusively to provide a recreational outlet for a local community.
