DO OFFICERS OF THE MONTGOMERY COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT COOPERATE WITH ICE AGENTS?

"It is longstanding County policy that County police do not enforce federal immigration law. Neither will they inquire about immigration status when individuals are stopped nor target individuals based on their ethnicity, race, or religious beliefs.

"The County's law enforcement leaders are also committed to our values, and they will continue working to build trust in our community. Police Chief Tom Manger, Corrections and Rehabilitation Director Rob Green, Sheriff Darren Popkin, and State's Attorney John McCarthy are sworn to protect the rights of all residents and to treat all individuals equally."

"Local police departments work hard to build and preserve trust with all of the communities they serve, including immigrant communities. Immigrants residing in our cities must be able to trust the police and all of city government." ## SHOULD I STOP USING PUBLIC SERVICES TO MINIMIZE MY RISK?

- "We want people to get the help they need. I want to assure the community that the Health and Human Services Department will continue to provide services to our community as we have done in the past. There will be no changes in our response to residents who need our services and are eligible for any services that we offer. We do not want barriers to prevent our residents from feeling safe, getting food, and finding shelter." –Uma Ahluwalia, Director, Department of Health and Human Services.
- If you have any questions regarding the impact of the executive actions on public benefits and your legal status, you should consult a reputable organization listed in The Gilchrist Immigrant Resource Center's list of reputable legal service providers.
