

Sunday, April 14, 2019

LAC meeting March 27, 2019

Present: Andrea Murphy, Ralph Hitchens, Andy Von Brand, Barbara Ebbert, Liz Bowen, and Tom Nightingale

Upcoming programs:

Scales and Tales

Science letters for summer reading kickoff 6/25

Shaun J. Magic show 7/26

Harry Potter party 7/31

Game nights for teens (Summer program)

4H agriculture program in August TBA

A census representative to talk about jobs for 2020 census TBA

Programs will cost about $1000, we have $2061 as of 1/31

Collections:

There are now Vox talking books for kids and Playaway audiobooks for adults. Users need to provide their own batteries however.

Facility:

The damaged sign has been fixed

They are working on the moldy doors

Staffing:

Offers have gone out for two positions, offers going out next week

Circulation (part time)

Adult and teen (part time)

Library Aide (summer)

Anita has applied to be director here

Brandon could not be here. He has a kit for library advocacy.

The Monocle survey has been completed. It will be released soon. It will show what library hours people in town would like.

A community reception will be held in May. Student artwork will be displayed at this event.

Library is a member of the Poolesville Chamber of Commerce. Liz goes to meetings first Thursday of the month.