  o How to operationalize the term limits for the LACs.

LAC LIAISON REPORTS:
• Connie Morella – Had a meeting attended by the branch manager and teen members. Their FOL chapter is funding a mural that will be behind the service desk. Sad about the loss of bulletin board space with the refresh. They have two LAC applications. They plan to reach out to the community members that are using the programs that are popular at the branch. Excited that the children’s collection circulates well. Would like the language in the LAC Handbook to be short and in plain English.
• Little Falls – Met on March 15. The chair had resigned. There were six members at the meeting. Five people from their FOL chapter were interested in being on the LAC. One person volunteered to take the minutes. The liaison updated the group with information from the Board meeting. The next meeting is scheduled for May.
• Chevy Chase – Still focused on the refresh. Because the assessment has not been furnished to them, they did not want to meet. The branch manager is encouraging them to refocus because the branch is not scheduled to be refreshed in this fiscal year. Chris Borawski is the new branch manager and is doing an excellent job with the LAC. He is communicating with the LAC and providing direction.
• Accessibility Advisory Committee – Missed the March meeting. They meet again in June.
• Potomac – Met last week with three members in attendance. Next meeting is mid-June.
• Wheaton – A strong group with eight to ten members in attendance each month. Currently discussing opening day for the new library.
• Silver Spring – Met the end of March. They would love to invite Council members to their meetings. More talk about the purple line. Still expressing concern that there is no bridge to connect the parking garage to the library. It is an energetic group that is adding new members. Asked them for feedback on the Annual Report form.
• Aspen Hill – Talked about the facilities punch list; the manager works with them regarding this. Feedback on the annual report form was requested. Concerned that they did not get to review the LAC Handbook prior to it being finalized. There has been an individual attending the meetings who has expressed interest in joining the LAC. Excited about a homeowner’s tax credit program scheduled for June 9, which they are helping sponsor.
• Kensington Park – Meet on June 4. They are trying to get new members.
• Olney – Met on March 20. Meets monthly; next meeting is April 17. The group is concerned that the new acting manager, Christine Freeman, is managing both Noyes and Olney. This is a busy group. They appreciate the ESOL program that has been going on there on Sundays, which is very well attended. They always connect with the manager regarding having enough staff before scheduling programs. They are happy about the budget. Also, happy about the possibility of the Long Branch and Damascus hours being restored. The Twinbrook LAC chair came to Olney to see how they were doings things; she is also going to visit Silver Spring.

- Follow Up
  - The Handbook is updated once a year.
  - Kim Durcho can provide some background on the LACs for which she liaised.
  - How do we want to get feedback from the LACs regarding the Handbook?
    - There has been a request to track what has been changed.
  - Note in the Handbook, or open for discussion, that LAC chairs should attend Board meetings on a regular basis.
  - A branch manager position is a promotion for librarians - a career opportunity. There will be high turnover at times. The LACs need to understand this.
