Public Safety Emergency Communications Specialist

"911, A Career That Changes Lives"

This is a challenging and rewarding career that affords the opportunity to provide a vital service to the community. It is a unique responsibility in a fast-paced environment requiring careful attention to detail, multi-tasking, and good communications skills.

The Montgomery County Emergency Communications Center (ECC) is the Public Safety Answering Point (PSAP) for all 9-1-1 calls placed in the County. This Center serves a large and diverse population just north of Washington, D.C. in a county that is considered to be one of the most affluent in the United States. The Public Safety Emergency Communications Specialist (Emergency Call Taker/Dispatcher) obtains location and other pertinent details from the caller to make the initial determination of the level and type of service needed when processing emergency calls for service. Major duties include answering 9-1-1 emergency calls, and dispatching police officers and/or fire rescue personnel to respond to calls using modern computer based Public Safety Communication Systems.
