

Mulugeta Habteselassie is an UNO translator and communicator for various events particularly health issues. He has participated in community awareness sponsored by Kaiser Permanente. He volunteers with the Ethiopian community and is the founding and executive member of the Ethiopian Community in MD. Mr. Mulugeta received his education from Addis Ababa, India, Oxford University College, and USA.