The Maryland Public Service Commission will hold two public hearings later this month on a request by the Potomac Electric Power Company (Pepco) to increase its electric distribution rates by $68.6 million. The typical residential customer would see an increase of $7.37 or 5.5 percent a month.

The second public hearing is scheduled for Wednesday, August 30 at 6:30 p.m. in the Third Floor Hearing Room of the Montgomery County Council Office Building, which is located at 100 Maryland Avenue in Rockville.

Pepco provides electricity to 566,000 customers in Prince George's and Montgomery counties. Pepco spent $138.3 million in 2016 on service reliability improvements to its distribution infrastructure, and plans to spend an additional $150.6 million in 2017.
