Guest – Keith Miller, CEO, Montgomery County Revenue Authority

The Montgomery County Revenue Authority, created in 1957, is an instrumentality of Montgomery County, Maryland and a public corporation. The Revenue Authority was established to construct, improve, equip, furnish, maintain, acquire, operate, and finance projects devoted wholly or partially for public use, good, or general welfare.

Mr. Miller has served in his current position for more than twelve years and oversees the Montgomery Airpark and the county's numerous golf courses and other facilities.
